

ANNO DECIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

CAP. VII.

AN ACT to fix and establish the Terms of the Supreme, Central Circuit, and Sessions Courts, and to extend the Jurisdiction and amend the Practice of the said Courts.

[Passed 30th April, 1850.]

W HEREAS it is expedient to fix and establish the terms or sessions Preamble. of the Supreme Court, Central Circuit Court, and Courts of General and Quarter Sessions, and to make provision for the more convenient and effectual despatch of business therein, and in the Northern and Southern Circuit Courts; and also to extend the jurisdiction of the said Courts respectively, in the summary trial of certain actions at law, and otherwise to amend the practice of the said Courts :--

I.—Be it therefore enacted, by the Governor, Council and Assembly of Terms of the Newfoundland, in Legislative Session convened, and by the authority of Supreme and Central Circuit Court the same, that there shall be two terms or sessions of the Supreme Court fixed. holden at the town of Saint John's, in every year, the first whereof shall commence on the twentieth day of May, and shall continue thence for the period of three whole weeks, and the second whereof shall commence on the twentieth day of November, and shall continue thence for the period of three whole weeks; and that there shall be two terms or sessions of the Central Circuit Court holden at the town of Saint John's in every year, the first whereof shall commence on the twentieth day of April, and shall continue thence for the period of three whole weeks, and the second whereof shall commence on the twentieth day of April, and shall continue thence for the period of three whole weeks, and the second whereof shall commence on the twentieth day of October, and continue thence for the period of three whole weeks: Provided always, that if Proviso, any of the days for the commencement of the said terms shall fall upon a Sunday, then the Monday following shall be the first day of such term; and when the last day of any such term shall fall upon a Sunday, the Monday following shall be the last day of such term.

Terms may be extended by the period not ex.

Supreme and Central Circuit Courts to hold

Powers of said Courts at such uttings.

Provise.

Process may be made returnable on days fixed for sittings in vacation, and parties to plead thereon to issue.

Like proceedings in cases of insolterm time.

11.—Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, that it shall be Extended by the Judges in case of lawful for the said respective Courts (if they shall find it necessary for necessity, for any the despatch of the business therein pending) to prolong and extend ceeding six (ays, any of the said terms respectively by adjournment from day to day, for such number of days, not exceeding six days in all, as they shall think fit; and further, that nothing in this Act contained shall prevent, or be construed to prevent, the holding of a term or terms, session or sessions, of either of the said Courts, at such other time or times as the Governor or Acting Governor of this Island shall, by any proclamation or proclamations to be by him for that purpose issued, direct and appoint.

111.—And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of disposing of business remaining undecided in the said Courts respectively, and of sittings on certain hearing and determining matters from time to time pending therein, it shall be lawful for the said Courts to hold sittings during the intervals of the said terms, on the days following, that is to say; the Supreme Court on the first Mondays respectively of February, March, April, and July; and the Central Circuit Court on the second Mondays respectively of February, March, and July; upon which said days it shall be lawful for the said Courts respectively to hear and determine, do and perform, all such matters and things whatsoever, not requiring the intervention of a Jury, as may be heard and determined, done and performed, by the said respective Courts in term time, save only the trial of issues of fact, and the assessment of damages in actions at law; and to adjourn from day to day, or to such other day or days, as such Courts shall think fit, until the business pending before them shall have been disposed of: Provided always, that such adjournment or adjournments shall not be for more than six days in all from the respective days on which the said Courts shall so sit in vacation, respectively, and that nothing herein contained shall authorize the said Judges, on any of the days aforesaid, to issue attachments for contempts, except in cases on the equity side of the said Courts.

> IV.—.And be it further enacted, That all process, whether mesne or final, issuing out of either of the said Courts, and all declarations in ejectment, may, at the discretion of the party suing out the same, be made returnable into the respective Courts on the seventh day before the commencement of the term next following the issuing of such process, or the service of such declaration; and upon the return of such process or declaration, all parties shall be compellable to plead thereon in like manner as by the rules of the said respective Courts they would be required to plead, reply, or rejoin, if such process or such declaration had been made returnable in term time.

V.—And be it further enacted, That whenever any writ of attachment vency may be had or other process shall have been issued out of either of the said Courts in in vacation as in vacation, and it shall be made to appear to such Court, upon any day appointed as aforesaid for sittings in vacation, that the person or persons against whom such writ or process shall have issued, or are unable to pay twenty shillings in the pound to all his, her, or their creditors, it shall be lawf 1 for the said respective Courts to have and exercise all such and the same jurisdiction, powers and authority to declare any such person or persons insolvent, appoint trustees of his or their estate and effects, and perform all other necessary and incidental acts touching such insolvency, in vacation, as by virtue of any law now in force are vested in and exercised by the said Courts respectively in term time.

Rules for new trial, &c., may be

VI.—And be it further enacted, That as often as any rule nisi to set returnable from aside a verdict, and enter a nonsuit, or for a new trial, or any rule for a concillium on a demurrer, shall be granted by any of the Circuit Courts of any of the Circuit this Island, it shall and may be lawful for the Judge presiding in such supreme Court, Court, upon the application of any party to the suit, and upon such terms and argued there. as the Judge may deem reasonable, to make such rule returnable in the Supreme Court, to be there argued and determined, either in term or upon any day in which the said Court shall sit in vacation, as hereinbefore directed; and that on such rule being made absolute or discharged, or such demurrer being adjudicated upon in the said Supreme Court, the same proceedings shall be subsequently had in the Court out of which such rule shall have issued, as though the matter to which it shall have had reference had been similarly determined in such last mentioned Court.

VII. — And be it further enacted, That in any action of ejectment which Declarations in may be brought in the Supreme Court or any of the Circuit Courts of this ejectment may be Island, it shall be lawful to serve the declaration in any such action on time. the tenant or tenants in possession during the continuance of any term in which such action may be brought, in like manner and to the like effect as such declaration may now be served before the commencement of the term: Provided nevertheless, that every such declaration shall be served Proviso. four days at least before the day on which the notice to the tenant in possession, endorsed thereon, shall require such tenant to appear and defend such action.

VIII.—And be it further enacted, That in all actions of ejectment, when costs in ejectment. the plaintiff shall not be further able to prosecute his suit for want of the defendant confessing, at the trial of the issue, lease, entry, ouster, and possession, the plaintiff shall be at liberty to recover his costs to be taxed before the proper officer, by execution against the defendant; and when there shall be a verdict for the defendant, or the plaintiff shall be nonsuit for any other cause than for the defendant not confessing lease, entry, ouster and possession, at the trial, the defendant shall be at liberty to recover his costs, to be taxed as aforesaid, by execution against the lessor of the plaintiff.

IX.—And be it further enacted, That Courts of General and Quarter Sittings of the Sessions shall be holden at such places as are now or hereafter may be Courts of General appointed for the holding of the same, on the first Mondays of January, Sessions fixed and April, July and October, and shall sit by adjournment from time to time established. until the business pending therein, respectively, shall be disposed of.

X.—And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Jurisdiction of Courts of Session in the several Districts of this Island, other than the Sessions Courts in Central District, to hear and determine, in a summary way, actions for the than the Central recovery of debts or sums of money (save and except for the recovery of district extended any fee of office) not exceeding five pounds; and such Courts are hereby not exceeding five empowered to hear and determine in like manner all actions of assumpsit for use and occupation, or of debt for rent, where the sum sought to be recovered shall not exceed five pounds, and where the title to any lands or tenements shall not be in question.

XI.—And be it further enacted, That the Court of Sessions for the Jurisdiction of Central District shall be and it is hereby empowered to hear and deter-Sessions Court for Central District shall be and it is hereby empowered to hear and deter-Sessions Court for Central District mine, in a summary way, actions for the recovery of debts or sums of extended to money (save and except for the recovery of any fee of office,) not exceed-actions for sums not exceeding five ing five pounds sterling, and actions of debt for rent, or of assumpsit for pounds. use and occupation, where the amount sought to be recovered shall not exceed five pounds sterling, and where the title to any lands or tenements shall not be in question.

XII.—And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any person Infants may prosecute for work under the age of twenty-one years to prosecute any suit in any Court in and labor. this Island having jurisdiction in such cases, for any sum of money not greater than twenty pounds sterling, which may be due to him for wages or piece work, or for work as a servant, in the same manner as if he were of full age, and shall be subject to such and the like proceedings for the recovery of costs, and otherwise, as if of the full age of twenty-one years.

XIII.—Whereas it is expedient to prescribe the forms of mesne process Form of pleading in summary pro- and the mode of pleading in summary cases aforesaid :

> Be it therefore enacted, that the Schedule to this Act, marked A, shall be the form of Summons and Attachment, mutatis mutandis, to be hereafter used in summary cases in the said Courts, and the copy or copies thereof to be served upon the defendant or defendants shall be endorsed as required by law, and that in inserting any other count than in such form contained, the plaintiff or plaintiffs may do so in the same brief manner; and that in all pleadings it shall be sufficient and effectual for the party or parties pleading to make the usual and known title thereof in practice, either on the back of the original writ, or to file the same separately within the time required by the practice of the several Courts for pleading in any such case aforesaid; and that in pleading a set off it shall be sufficient for the defendant or defendants to file a bill of particulars, accompanied with a copy for the plaintiff or plaintiffs, and endorse thereon " set off."

A

NEWFOUNDLAND.

District \overline{s}

> District, Greeting. To the Sheriff of that he be before our Court Summon A. B. of to answer C. D. who complains in person or by on E F., Attorney, that the said defendant is indebted to the said plaintiff Pounds, for goods sold and delivered, in the sum of work performed, and materials furnished, monies lent, paid, received on account stated, or for use and occupation, or as by bill of particulars hereto annexed, or the Witness the Honorable at in the year of Our Lord One day of thousand eight hundred and Clerk or Commissioner of Court.

Court.

A. B., Plaintiff vs.

C. D., Defendant

Attorney (or person)

E. F., of maketh oath and saith that he did on the personally serve C. D. the within day of named defendant, with a true copy of the within writ, whereupon was endorsed a notice of the true intent of such service, and also a copy of the particulars hereto annexed, and that he necessarily travelled miles to make such service.

Plaintiff

Sworn before me

XIV.—And be it further enacted, That the sum of two shillings and Fee in summary proceedings to Sherifis on special six pence only, exclusive of mileage, shall be paid to the Sheriff for the service of any summary writ of summons from the Supreme or either of deputations. the Circuit Courts, and that the Sheriff of the Central District shall not be coedings.

fssued

entitled to charge any fee for service, return, or poundage, on any writ of attachment executed in the Northern or Southern District by a special deputation.

XV. -And Whereas it is expedient and necessary that provision should Provision respectbe made to enable Justices of the Peace to take order as to the hearing ing apprentices. and determining of all differences that may arise within this Colony between masters or mistresses and their apprentices, and to regulate certain proceedings connected with apprentices :

Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Stipendiary Justice of the Peace within the said Colony, and he is hereby required, upon application made to him in that behalf, to consent to and approve, by writing under his hand, of any indenture of apprenticeship that shall be produced before him, provided upon examination he shall be satisfied of the good moral character and other requisite fitness of the master or mistress of such apprentice; whereupon such indenture of apprenticeship shall be as binding upon the said master or mistress and apprentice, and all parties concerned, as if such master or mistress and such apprentice or other parties had been at the time of the execution of such indenture of full age.

XVI.—And be it further enacted, That if any master or mistress of an in-supendiary dentured apprentice shall misuse or evil entreat his or her apprentice, Justice to have or the said apprentice shall have any just cause to complain, or if the apprentice do not his or her duty to his or her master or mistress, then the said master or mistress, or the apprentice having such cause of complaint, shall and may repair unto any Stipendiary Justice of the Peace of the Town or District wherein such master or mistress dwelleth, who shall by his wisdom and discretion make such order and direction between the said master or mistress and the apprentice, as the equity of the cause shall require; and for the purpose of hearing and determining any such complaint, such Justice shall have power to enforce the attendance before him of any master or mistress, and of any apprentice, and also of any necessary witness, by summons, or, it such Justice shall think it expedient and necessary, by warrant for that purpose; and it default shall be found in such master or mistress, it shall be lawful for such Justice, at his own discretion, to impose a fine upon him or her, not exceeding Twenty Shillings, and to levy the same by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, or to discharge, by writing under his hand and seal, such apprentice from his said apprenticeship, according to his discretion, upon which discharge such indenture shall cease and be of no further effect; and if default shall be found in such apprentice, the said Justice shall authorize such abatement to be made out of his or her wages or allowances, or cause such apprentice to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding ten days, as by his wisdom and discretion shall be thought meet, or may, in addition to or without such abatement, correction and punishment, at his discretion, discharge such apprentice from his said apprenticeship, whereupon such indenture shall cease and be of no further effect.

XVII .-- And be it further enacted, That no indenture of apprenticeship, Executor or nor any covenant therein, shall be of any force or effect to require the exe- administrator not bound to keep cutor or administrator of such master or mistress to keep or maintain such apprentices apprentice more than one month after the death of such master or mistress, month. and that at the expiration of such month the indenture of apprenticeship shall cease and be of no further effect.

J. C. WITHERS, Printer to the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.