ANNO QUARTO

GULIELMI IV. REGIS.

(2ND SESSION.)

CAP. XXIII.

An ACT to incorporate a Law Society in Newfoundland, and to regulate the admission of Barristers and Attornies to practise in the Law in the several Courts in this Island.

[12th June, 1834.]

BE IT ENACTED, by the Governor, Council, and Assembly of Newfoundland, that from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the persons, now admitted to practise in the Law, and practising at the Bar of any of His Majesty's Courts of this Island, to form themselves into a Society, to be called "The Law Society of Newfoundland," as well for the establishing of order amongst themselves, as for the purpose of securing to the Island and the profession, a Learned and Honorable body, to assist their fellow-subjects as occasion may require, and to support and maintain the constitution of the Island.

Practitioners at the Bar may form themselves into a Society to be called "The Law Society of Newfoundland."

II.—And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that the said Society shall, and it is hereby authorized to, form a body of Rules and Regulations for its own Government, under the Inspection of the Judges of the Supreme Court of this Island, for the time being, as Visitors of the said Society, and to appoint Six Members, or more, of the present Practitioners, and such Six Members or more for the time being, in all times to come, whereof His Majesty's Attorney-General and Solicitor-General, for the time being, shall be, and be considered to be two, as Governors or Benchers of the said Society, and also to appoint a Librarian and Treasurer.

Power to make Bye-Laws, &c.

Governors, Benchers and Officers of the Society.

III.—And be it further enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Practitioners, or as many as can be called together, (whereof His Majesty's Attorney General and Solicitor General shall be two) to assemble at St. John's, in the Island aforesaid, on the First Day of July next after the passing of this Act, for the purpose of framing and adopting such Rules and Regulations, as may be necessary for the Members to meet & frame Rules and Regulations.

Such Rules, when approved by the Judges, to be the Constitution of the Society.

Practitioners may have not exceeding three articulated clerks.

Barristers of the United Kingdom or the North American Colonies, may be called to the Bar, on being entered of this Society.
