be exported without a certificate of an Inspector.

such Fish are shipped for Exportation; and every such Master, Owner or Shipper, shall take and subscribe the following declaration before the Officer authorized as aforesaid :

Declaration to be made of such Inspection by Shippers.

“I, A. B. do declare that the Certificate hereunto annexed contains the whole quantity of Pickled and Barrelled Fish on board the Master, and that no Fish is Shipped on board the said Vessel for the Ship’s Company, or on Freight or Cargo, but what is Inspected and Branded according to the Law of this Colony.”

Penalty for shipping Fish not Inspected.

And if any Master of a Vessel, or other Person, shall receive or put on board any Ship or Vessel, to transport the same from this Colony, any Pickled or Whole Fish, Packed in Casks which are not Inspected and Branded in the manner by this Act prescribed, he or they, on conviction, shall forfeit one half of the value of all such uninspected Fish so Exported or Shipped.

Penalty for intermixing and shipping Fish after Inspection or exporting damaged or uninspected Fish.

XII.—And be it further enacted, that whosoever shall, in or from any Cask, intermix, take out, or shift any Inspected Fish, Packed or Branded as aforesaid; or put therein other Fish for Exportation, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Act; and whosoever shall Export, or cause to be Exported, or Ship for Exportation, from this Colony, any tainted or damaged Fish, or any Tierce, Barrel, or Half-barrel of Pickled Fish, not Inspected and Branded according to this Act; and whosoever, being the Master of any Vessel, having on board any Pickled Fish for Exportation, or being the Shipper thereof, shall not produce to the Principal Officer of Customs for the Port, before the Ship’s departure therefrom, such Certificate of the Inspection of Pickled Fish, as is herein directed, each and every of the Parties so offending shall suffer and pay a penalty of Twenty Shillings Sterling, for every Hundred Weight of such Fish, in this Section referred to.

Penalty on Inspectors branding Fish deficient in quality, &c.

XIII.—And be it further enacted, that whenever it shall appear that any Cask of Pickled Fish, Branded by any such Inspector as aforesaid, hath proved unequal, in quantity or quality, to that which may be indicated by the Brand on the Cask, or be deficient in any of the requisites in this Act before mentioned, then, and in every such case, on due proof thereof, the party injured thereby shall be entitled to recover from such Inspector, for each and every such deficient Cask of Fish, double the value thereof at the time of the Inspection: Provided always, that in every such case, sufficient proof shall be given, by the party complaining, that the said Cask, when first opened, was found to be insufficient and defective in the particulars required by this Act; and that such insufficiency or defect arose entirely from the state, condition, or bad quality of the Cask, or of the Fish, or the bad Packing or Pickling of the Fish, at the time of the Inspection thereof; and not from any casualty or neglect subsequent to the Inspection.

Such deficiency to be proved to be caused by the badness of the Cask, &c.

XV.—And be it further enacted, that no Vessel laden, or partly laden, with any Pickled Fish, the produce of the Fisheries of this Colony, and destined to any Port or Place whatsoever out of the same, shall, after the passing of this Act, be permitted to depart from this Colony for such Port of destination, until the Master of the said Vessel, or the Shipper of such Pickled Fish, shall first produce to the Collector, or Deputy Collector of Customs, for the Port or Place where such Pickled Fish are laden on board, a Certificate of an Inspector of Pickled Fish, for the place of her lading, setting forth, and certifying, that all Pickled Fish laden on board such Vessel, have been, according to Law, Surveyed and Inspected, and the Fish Barrels Branded, according to the provisions of this Act: Provided, however, that nothing in this Act shall be construed so as to prevent uninspected Mackerel, or other Pickled Fish, from being Sold in any Port or Harbour of this Colony, by the Fishermen, Planters, or others, as they bring them to Market, in Casks, Bulk, or otherwise; and that nothing contained in this Act shall extend to Fish packed in Kegs of less than Ten Gallons.

Proviso.

XVI.—And be it further enacted, that it shall be the duty of the Collector, Sub-Collectors, and Officers of Her Majesty's Customs, throughout this Colony, and of the Inspectors of Fish appointed by virtue of this Act, severally to enforce the execution of the same, and to compel obedience thereto; and to seize, and prosecute to condemnation, all Pickled Fish liable to be forfeited under this Act.

Officers of Customs and Inspectors, to enforce the provisions of this Act.

XVII.—And be it further enacted, that it shall be the duty of the Principal Officers of Her Majesty's Customs, in all Ports of this Colony, whenever any Pickled Fish is cleared out according to this Act, to grant to the Master of the Vessel, wherein the same shall be Shipped, a Certificate in the following form, that is to say—

Officers of Customs to grant certificates of Pickled Fish cleared out.

“These will Certify that A. B., Master of the bound from hence to has cleared out of Pickled according to Law.”

(To be signed by the Collector or Officer of Customs.)

XVIII.—And be it further enacted, that the Inspectors of Pickled Fish, who shall or may be appointed under or by virtue of this Act, shall respectively be paid for each Certificate for Exportation, One Shilling Sterling; and for Inspecting and Branding each and every Cask of Fish, as directed by this Act—for each Tierce, Ten Pence Sterling; for each Barrel, Seven Pence Sterling; and for each Half-barrel, Four Pence Half-penny Sterling. The charge of the Certificate, Inspecting and Branding, shall be paid by the Exporter, or Purchaser, in addition to the purchase or cost of the Fish; and bills for the legal Fees of Inspection, and Certificates, shall in the first instance, be paid by the original Owner of such Fish, or by the Persons employing the Inspector; and all such Owners and Employers are hereby empowered to demand, and recover the amount of said Bill from the subsequent Purchaser or Exporter. And it shall be the duty of all such Inspectors of Pickled Fish annually to make returns to the Governor, or Person Administering the Government for the time being, of all Pickled Fish that shall have been Inspected by them, respectively, during the past year.

Fees to Inspectors.

Inspectors to make returns to the Governor annually.

XIX.—And be it further enacted, that if any Inspector of Pickled Fish shall Brand any Cask, the contents of which he has not Inspected, Packed, Salted and Cooped, according to the true intent and meaning of this Act, or if he shall permit any other Person to use his Brands, in violation or evasion thereof, he or they so offending shall forfeit and pay, for every Cask so branded, the Sum of Five Pounds Sterling, and be liable to be removed from his Office.
