

Anno Vicesimo-Quinto

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

CAP. IX.

An ACT for the better securing the Independence of the House of Assembly of this Colony, by disabling certain Persons from being elected thereto, or of sitting or voting therein as Members.

[Passed 27th March, 1862.]

WHEREAS the holding of Offices of Emolument under the Government by Members of the House of Assembly, except in certain cases, is subversive of the Independence of the Representative Branch of the Legislature; and it is necessary to make provision for the better securing the Independence of the House of Assembly in that behalf: Preamble.

Be it enacted, by the Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly, in Legislative Session convened:

That from and after the determination of the present General Assembly, no Person who shall hold any Office, Place, or Appointment of profit or emolument from or under the Government of this Colony, or from or under any Branch of the Legislature, or from or under any Board or Public Body the Members whereof are nominated by the Government, shall be eligible to be elected, or to sit or vote, as a Member of the House of Assembly: Provided that this Section shall not apply to the respective Persons who may hold the Offices of Attorney-General, Colonial Secretary, Receiver- No Person holding Office under Government eligible to be elected as Member of Assembly.

Exceptions.
