

Laws of Her Majesty's Province of Newfoundland, passed in the year 1863.

26 Victoria – Chapter 19

An Act to Indemnify His Excellency Governor Sir Alexander Bannerman, for certain sums of Money advanced by him from the Colonial Treasury, for the service of the Colony. (Passed 25th March, 1863.)

Whereas it is expedient to Indemnify His Excellency Governor Sir Alexander Bannerman, for sums of Money advanced by him from the Colonial Treasury for the Public Service, as is hereinafter detailed. Be it therefore enacted by the Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly, in Legislative Session convened:

That from and out of such Moneys as may from time to time remain in the hands of the Receiver General, and unappropriated, there be granted to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, the sum of Thirteen Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty-seven Pounds and Eighteen Shillings, to be appropriated as follows—that is to say:

Towards Indemnifying His Excellency Governor Sir Alexander Bannerman for the sum of Thirteen Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty-seven Pounds and Eighteen Shillings, advanced by him out of the Colonial Revenue on his own responsibility, and expended by him for the Public Service, as follows:

For Civil and Criminal Prosecutions, one hundred and forty-six pounds sixteen shillings and nine pence.

For Circuit Courts, one hundred and seventy-five pounds four shillings and ten pence.

For Ordinary Expenses of Court Houses and Gaols, three hundred and thirteen pounds three shillings and eleven pence.

For Fuel, Light, and Repairs, Colonial Building, eighty-one pounds ten shillings and eight pence.

For Insurance on Public Buildings, twenty-two pounds five shillings and six pence.

For Postages, Incidentals and Telegrams, nine pounds four shillings and one penny.

For Printing and Stationery, one hundred and thirty-six pounds and five shillings.

For the Relief of the Poor, ten thousand nine hundred and sixteen pounds seventeen shillings and eleven pence.

For Election Expenses, two hundred and thirteen pounds three shillings and five pence.

For the Expenses of Shipwrecked Crews, five hundred and eleven pounds nineteen shillings and six pence.

For Repairs of Court Houses and Gaols, fifty-seven pounds sixteen shillings and four pence.

To Charles Parsons, on account of Repairs to the Harbor Grace Barracks, thirty-nine pounds fourteen shillings and four pence.

To William V. Whiteway, Esquire, on account of the International Exhibition, one hundred and fifty-two pounds and seventeen shillings.

To Jane Keith, compensation, five pounds.

To Michael Kearney, on account of International Exhibition, ten pounds.

To Michael J. Kelly, Travelling Expenses, twenty-five pounds.

To John Haddon, Travelling Expenses, twenty-five pounds.

To the Board of Works, to defray the expenses of erecting a Fire Alarm, twenty-one pounds.

To the Board of Works, to defray the Expenses of Repairs on the Barracks in Harbor Grace, three pounds ten shillings and eleven pence.

The sum of twenty-seven pounds seven shillings and six pence to defray the expenses of Men at Fort Amherst.

To John Kenny, Compensation, eight pounds thirteen shillings and four pence.

To Honora Mackey, Compensation in full of all claims, four pounds six shillings and eight pence.

To the Commandant of the Garrison, to defray the Expenses of Re- moving and Remounting the Gun used as a Fog Signal at Fort Amherst, five pounds three shillings and five pence.

To Edward M. J. Delaney, for expenses incurred in connection with the Break Water at Port de Grave, one pound one shilling and eight pence.

For General Repairs of Roads and Bridges, three hundred and Roads and Bridge, thirty-one pounds one shilling and six pence.

For Repairs and General Expenses at the Poor Asylum, two hundred and eighty-five pounds sixteen shillings and seven pence.

The sum of ninety pounds nineteen shillings and five pence to defray Police Clothing, the expense of Police Clothing.

From: British North America Legislative Database; University of New Brunswick
bnald.lib.unb.ca

The sum of twenty-three pounds two shillings and four pence, to defray the expenses of Lunatic Paupers and Repairs of the Lunatic Asylum.

The sum of seven pounds nine shillings and five pence, to defray the expenses attending the firing of Fog Guns.

The sum of eight pounds two shillings and eight pence, to defray Block House, the expenses of Repairs of Block House.

The sum of ninety-eight pounds three shillings and four pence, to defray the expense attending the Investigation of Election Riots.