

C. H. A. P. XI.

An ACT to lay and collect a Duty upon Stills.

Preamble.

WHEREAS for the better support of the government of this province, it is expedient to encrease the revenues thereof; We your majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the representatives of the people of the province of Upper-Canada, in assembly met, do most humbly beseech your majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the king's most excellent majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council and assembly of the province of Upper-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an act passed in the parliament of Great-Britain, entitled an act to repeal certain parts of an act passed in the fourteenth year of his majesty's reign, entitled, "An act for making more effectual provision for the government of the province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the government of the said province," and by the authority of the same, That from and after the fifth day of April next, there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid yearly, and every year, unto his majesty, his heirs and successors, to and for the uses of this province, and towards the support of the civil government thereof; of and from all persons having and using a still or stills, or hereafter to have and use a still or stills, for the purpose of distilling spirituous liquors for sale, a sum not exceeding one shilling and three pence lawful money of this province, for every gallon which the body of such still or stills shall or may be capable of containing, in manner herein after mentioned.

Duty to be paid for every gallon which a still, in use, is capable of containing.

Provision for the current year, to determine in April.

Method of ascertaining the contents of rateable stills.

II. And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the service of the current year, Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said duties shall begin and be payable for the seven months which will elapse between the fifth day of September, and the fifth day of April next ensuing the passing of this act, to be paid at and after the rate of seven pence half-penny lawful money as aforesaid, per gallon, in manner herein after mentioned.

III. And in order, that the size of the several stills to be employed for the purposes aforesaid, may be more truly ascertained, and the duties to be imposed thereon more easily collected; Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the fifth day of November next, it shall not be lawful for any person to make use of any still or stills, for distilling spirituous liquors for sale, until he shall have obtained a licence for that purpose; and every person desirous of obtaining such a licence, shall, in a written requisition for the same, to be made in manner hereafter mentioned, specify and set forth the number of gallons which the body of the still or stills he proposes to use, does or do contain, which specification shall be inserted in the licence to him to be granted: and in case any person shall make use of any still for the purpose of distilling spirits for sale without having obtained such licence, or shall make use of any still or stills for the purpose of distilling spirits, of larger dimensions than that or those specified in his licence or requisition, or shall have in his possession any still or stills erected or set up over a furnace or fire place, so as the same may be used for distilling, capable of containing singly or together a greater number of gallons in the body or bodies thereof, than the number of gallons specified and set forth in his licence or requisition, and be thereof lawfully convicted by confession, or on the oath of one credible witness before any of his majesty's justices of the peace, he shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of ten pounds lawful money as aforesaid, to be levied by distress and sale of the offenders goods and chattels, one half of which said sum of ten pounds, shall be given to the person or persons informing, and the other half paid into the hands of his majesty's receiver general, to and for the public uses of this province; and that the still or stills so employed shall be forfeited to his majesty, and that the party having used the same shall be incapable of obtaining a licence for the purpose of distilling spirituous liquors for sale, for and during the term of three years.

Penalty for using or having in a situation to be used, stills of larger dimensions than specified in the licence.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the secretary of the province for the time being, shall and may by himself and agents for that purpose to be duly appointed in each and every district of this province, issue all licences for the purpose abovementioned upon such requisition as aforesaid, which may be in the following form.

Licences to be issued by the secretary.

“ I H. B. do require a licence for using a still, the body of which is capable of containing _____ gallons, and no more (and in case more than one still is intended to be used) and also for another still, the body of which is capable of containing _____ gallons and no more, for the year ensuing the fifth day of April next, as witness my hand H. B. this _____ day of _____
