dible witness before any one of his majesty's justices of the peace, he shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of ten pounds, one half of which shall be paid to the informer, and the other half into the hands of his majesty's receiver general, to and for the public uses of this province, and the support of the government thereof.

Search warrant to be granted on affidavit.

X. And in order to prevent fraud in the matters aforesaid, Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any of his majesty's justices of the peace, upon oath first to be made by any credible person, that such person has good reason to believe that the still or stills employed by any licenced person does or do contain a greater number of gallons in the body or bodies thereof, than what is specified in his requisition or licence, to grant a search warrant to a peace officer; taking with him the party making oath as aforesaid, and any other person for the purpose of examining the still house or other place where any still or stills may be set up, and of measuring or gauging the bodies thereof; Provided always, that no such warrant be executed before sun rise, or after sun set.

Distillers not to retail, nor to be licenced to retail.

XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall not be lawful for any person working any licenced still or stills as aforesaid, to sell or barter any quantity of such distilled liquor less than three gallons, nor shall it be lawful for the secretary of the province or any of his agents, to grant a licence for the purpose of distilling spirituous liquors to any person or persons, licenced at the same time to retail spirituous liquors, or to grant a licence for retailing spirituous liquors, to any person or persons licenced at the same time to distill spirituous liquors.

Payment of the monies into the hands of the receiver general.

XII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all monies which shall be received by the secretary of the province or his agents, under and by virtue of this act, for licences, to commence on the fifth day of September next, shall be paid by the secretary into the hands of the receiver general of this province, on or before the twentieth day of May and that all monies hereafter to be received by virtue of this act, for licences, to commence on the sixth day of April, shall be paid in to the said receiver general on or before the twenty-first day of June next ensuing, and that all monies that may be received by virtue of this act after the said twenty-first day of June in each and every year successively, be paid in to the receiver general, on or before the fifth day of April next ensuing.

Fouadage of the receiver general.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the receiver general, as treasurer of this province, to deduct from and out of the several sums of money to him paid by the secretary of the province, under and by virtue of this act, the sum of three pounds, for every hundred by him received as aforesaid.

Accounting of monies.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all the fines, forfeitures and penalties that shall be incurred under this act, shall be accounted for to his majesty, through the commissioners of his majesty's treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as his majesty shall direct.

C H A P. XII.

An ACT for regulating the manner of licencing Public Houses, and for the more easy convicting of Persons selling spirituous Liquors, without Licence.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the provisions contained in a certain ordinance of the late province of Quebec, passed in the twenty-eighth year of his majesty's reign, entitled, "An act or ordinance for the better security of the revenue arising on the retail of wine, brandy, rum or spirituous liquors, have been found inconvenient; and whereas it is expedient to make other and more easy regulations respecting licences to houses of public entertainment; Be it enacted by the king's most excellent majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Recital of an ordinance passed 28 Geo. 3.

legislative council and assembly of the province of Upper-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an act passed in the parliament of Great-Britain, entitled an act to repeal certain parts of an act passed in the fourteenth year of his majesty's reign, entitled, "An act for making more effectual provision for the government of the province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the government of the said province," and by the authority of the same, That the said act or ordinance shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

The same repealed.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the twentieth day of March next, no licence shall be granted to any person to keep an inn or public house for the purpose of vending wine, brandy, rum or other spirituous liquors; unless he shall first have obtained a certificate of his being a proper person to keep an inn or public house from the magistrates of the division wherein he resides or is about to reside, to be granted to him as herein after specified; and all licences which shall be hereafter granted to the contrary hereof shall be null and void.

Certificates to be obtained by persons, previous to their being licenced.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That for the said purpose, it shall and may be lawful for the magistrates acting in each and every division of the several districts of this province, to limit the number of inns and public houses in their several divisions, and to appoint a day of public meeting in each division in either of the two last weeks in the month of March in every year, at a convenient place within their several divisions, by a warrant under their hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any two of them, at least ten days before such meeting, directed to the high constable or other peace officer, requiring him to give notice in the most public manner of such intended meeting, and then and there to hear and receive applications from all such persons as desire to take out licences for opening inns or public houses within their said several divisions, and the said magistrates shall upon hearing and receiving any application from any person praying to have a licence granted to him, enquire into the life, character and behaviour of the person so applying, and if it shall appear to the greater part of the justices then and there assembled, that it is expedient to encrease the number of inns or public houses and that the party applying is a sober, honest and diligent man, and a good subject of our lord the king, they shall then and there grant a certificate accordingly under the hands and seals of any two of them, which certificate shall enable the party holding the same, to apply for and take out a licence on or before the said fifth day of April then next ensuing the day of the said certificate, and such certificate shall be a proper and sufficient warrant for the secretary of the province or his agent, to grant to the said person holding the said certificate such licence on receiving payment of such duties as are already imposed, or may hereafter be imposed by law on the same.

The number of inns may be limited by the magistrates.

Meeting of magistrates, annually in March in order to determine upon applications for licences.

A certificate from the magistrates, so assembled, shall serve as a warrant to obtain a licence.

On payment of duties.

IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no certificate to obtain such licence shall be granted to any person not licenced the year preceeding, unless such person shall produce to the justices at the said meeting, should they require it, a testimonial under the hands of the parson and church or town wardens, or of four reputable and substantial householders and inhabitants of the said division wherein the said inn or public house is intended to be kept; setting forth, that such person is of good fame, sober life and conversation and that he has taken the oath of allegiance to our sovereign lord the king.

Restrictions in granting licences to persons not licenced of the preceeding year.

V. Provided nevertheless, That if any licenced person shall die or remove from the inn or public house kept by him, it shall and may be lawful for the person succeeding to the occupation of such house, to keep on the said inn or public house during the residue of the term of such licence, on condition that such person shall obtain an assignment endorsed on the back of the licence granted to the person so deceased or removed; which assignment shall be executed in the presence of a magistrate, and shall within thirty days after the death or removal of such per-
