An ACT to prohibit the Sale of Spirituous Liquors to Indians within this Province.

[Passed the 13th March, 1813.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS in the present situation of this Province, it is necessary to prohibit the sale of Spirituous Liquors to Indians, and whereas the Laws now in force relative thereto have been found insufficient: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "an Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of his Majesty's reign, intituled, "an Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province, and by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons whatsoever to sell, barter or give, or aid and assist in procuring or distributing any Rum, Brandy, Whisky, or other Spirituous Liquors or Strong Waters or low wines, to any Indian or Indians within this Province.

Sale of Spirituous Liquors to the Indians prohibited.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person or persons shall be convicted of selling, bartering, or giving or of aiding or assisting, or procuring or distributing any Rum, Brandy, Whisky, or other Spirituous Liquors, Strong Waters or low wines to such Indian or Indians, contrary to the provisions of this act, he or they shall be convicted in the same manner and be subject to the same pains, penalties and fines as persons selling Spirituous Liquors without Licence are now convicted and fined according to law.

Penalty for disobedience.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this act shall be and continue in force for one year, and from thence to the end of the then next ensuing Session of Parliament.

Continuance of this act.
