An Act to repeal an Act passed in the fifty-fifth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled "An Act to explain and amend an Act passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act to provide for the maintenance of persons disabled, and the widows and children of such persons as may be killed in his Majesty's Service,'" and also an Act passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled "An Act to repeal part of and to alter and amend the Laws now in force for granting Pensions to persons disabled in the Service, and the widows and children of persons who may have been killed in the Service, and to extend the provisions of the same" and an Act passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled "An Act to repeal part of and amend an Act passed in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act to repeal part of and to alter and amend the Laws now in force for granting Pensions to persons disabled in the Service, and the widows and children of persons who may have been killed in the Service, and to extend the provisions of the same' and to make provision for granting Pensions to persons disabled in the Service, and to the widows and children of persons who may have been killed in the Service, or who may have died while in captivity with the enemy, during the late War with the United States of America."

[Passed 14th April, 1821.]

WHEREAS by a certain Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled "An Act to repeal part of, and to alter and amend the Laws now in force for granting pensions to persons disabled in the service, and the widows and children of persons who may have been killed in the service, and to extend the provision of the same" the classes of Militia Pensioners were greatly increased so that the Public Revenue has been found wholly unable to bear the charge thereby incurred: And whereas the said Act being limited in its duration is now about to expire, and it is become necessary to confine the Militia Pensions with the exceptions hereinafter mentioned to the objects provided for by the Laws of this Province passed during the late War, and to provide for such investigation of the claims of the different Pensioners, as may prevent further loss to the Revenue from any misrepresentation or deceit which may have been practised: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province'" and by the authority of the same, That the Act of the Parliament of this Province passed in the fifty-fifth year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, entitled "An Act
