An Act to amend an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled "An Act for vesting in Commissioners the Estates of certain Traitors and also the Estates of Persons declared Aliens by an Act passed in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled "An Act to declare certain persons therein described Aliens and to vest their Estates in His Majesty, and for applying the proceeds thereof towards compensating the Losses which His Majesty's Subjects have sustained in consequence of the late war, and for ascertaining and satisfying the lawful debts and claims thereupon."

[Passed 14th April, 1821.]

cited.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the fifty-fourth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled "An Act to declare certain persons therein described Aliens and to vest their Estates in His Majesty" certain Estates in this Province have become vested in His Majesty, having been found by Inquisition to have been on the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and twelve, in the seizin of persons, declared Aliens by the Provisions of that Act, which Estates were after the said first day of July and before the departure of such Aliens from this Province conveyed to bona fide purchasers without any intention of fraud, or were seized and sold in execution upon judgments lawfully obtained before the departure of such Aliens from this Province as aforesaid: And whereas the Provisions of the said Act in that behalf were only intended to prevent fraudulent sales, made with intent to evade expected forfeitures, it is expedient that relief should be afforded to bona fide purchasers in the cases above mentioned, who in some instances have made large improvements upon lands acquired by them before the passing of said Act, and who would be wholly ruined unless provision is made for such relief. Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent
