authorised to traverse a certain inquisition upon giving security for costs.

for the said Matthew Crooks, or his heirs, at any time within six months from the passing of this Act, to traverse the said inquisition, so far as the same may affect any title of the said Matthew Crooks, or his heirs, to the parcel, tract, or lot of land, as aforesaid. Provided always, that before any traverse to the said inquisition shall be received or filed in the office of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, the said Matthew Crooks, or his heirs, shall enter into a bond to His Majesty in the penalty of fifty pounds, conditioned for the payment of all such costs as His Majesty may be put unto, in or about the defending the said traverse, in case judgment should be given thereon for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, or the said Matthew Crooks shall fail in prosecuting the same with effect.

C H A P. XXXIII.

An Act for the Relief of John Boswell.

[Passed 19th March, 1823.]

Preamble

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the second year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act to repeal part of, and amend an Act. passed in the thirty-seventh year of His late Majesty's Reign. entitled. 'An Act for the better regulating the Practice of the Law,' and to extend the provisions of the same:" And whereas it is, among other things, enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, no person shall be admitted by the Court of King's Bench to practise as an Attorney in this Province, unless upon an actual service under articles for five years with some practising attorney in this Province: And whereas it appears by the petition of John Boswell, a native of England, now resident in this Province, and by certificates and documents produced in support thereof, that he was admitted an attorney of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in England in the year of Our Lord one thousand, seven hundred, and ninety-seven; and also, that he came into this Province in the hope of being allowed to practise his profession of the law, but arrived a short time subsequent to the passing of the said first recited Act: And whereas the said John Boswell is desirous of practising the Law in this Province, and it is expedient to relieve him from the disability imposed by the said Act. Be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain. entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual Provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further Provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding, the Court of King's Bench may at its discretion admit the said John Boswell to practise as an attorney in this Province.

Court of King's Bench may admit J. Boswell to practise as an attorney of that Court.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Law Society may at its discretion receive into the same, and introduce to the Court of King's Bench as a Barrister the said John Boswell; and thereupon being received at the bar of the Court of King's Bench, he shall thenceforth be authorised to practise the profession of the Law, as fully to all intents and purposes, as any barrister now practises the same in this Province.

And Law Society may admit him into that Society as a Barrister.
