

sons proposed to be purchasad by the said Company, or the amount of damages to be paid by the said Company to any person or persons under the provisions of the said seventh clause, to take into their consideration the advantages likely to accrue as well as the injury or damage occasioned to Lands or Tenements by reason of the said Canal: Provided always nevertheless, That it shall not be in the power of such arbitrators to award that any such sum shall be paid by any person or persons to the said Company, on account of any such advantages as aforesaid. Proviso.

V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all matters of disagreement or dispute to be settled or determined by arbitration, under the provision of the said seventh clause of the said Act, passed in the Fourth year of His Majesty's Reign, shall be referred to arbitrators as therein provided, so that the award or awards of such arbitrators may be made, published, and declared, on or before the first day of September next, and that all and every sum of money, by such award or awards directed to be paid by the said Company, shall be paid to the party or parties entitled to receive the same on or before the first day of October next. Time limited for referring claims to arbitration and for paying sums awarded.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That whenever the Canal, to be made by the said Company, in any part of its course from the Grand River to Lake Ontario, shall have the effect of depriving any person possessing Lands adjacent thereto of any privilege or convenience of water, for ordinary purposes, which he had before enjoyed, it shall be incumbent upon the said Company to allow to the person or persons, then and at all times hereafter possessing the said Lands, free and convenient access, for persons and cattle, to the waters of the said Canal. Remedy where persons shall be deprived by the Canal of any privilege of water.

VII And Whereas, in consequence of the enlargement of the said Canal, in order to adapt it to Schooner navigation, it is expedient to repeal the eleventh clause of the said Act, passed in the Fourth year His Majesty's Reign, and to make further provision in respect thereof, Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said clause shall be and the same is hereby repealed, and it shall be lawful for any person possessing Lands through which the said Canal shall pass, and upon which there shall now be buildings, improvements, or Fields, which the said Canal shall divide, to erect a bridge at his own expense to connect the same: Provided always, that such bridge shall not prevent greater obstacles to the navigation of the said Canal, than the bridges erected thereon by the said Company. 4 Geo. 4, cp. 17, Sec. 11, repealed.
Regulation as to bridges over the Canal.
