CHAP. X.

AN ACT to afford greater facility in barring the right of Dower.

[Passed 13th February, 1833.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to afford greater facilities to married women to bar their claim to Dower of and in any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which their husbands may be about to depart with: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any person or persons, resident within this Province, entitled to Dower of and in any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, to appear before any two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, of the District wherein such person or persons may be resident, and acknowledge her consent to be barred of her right of Dower, of, in and to any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments within this Province, which two Justices shall have power and authority to grant a Certificate to the following effect:

Dower may be barred before two Justices.

Form of Certificate.

We, A. B. and C. D. of the District of ——, in the Province of Upper Canada, Esquires, two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, in and for the said District, do certify that E. F. wife of G. F. personally, appeared before us, and being duly examined by us, touching her consent to be barred of her right of Dower, of and in the Lands in the within Deed mentioned, it did appear to us that the said E. F. did give her consent thereto, freely and voluntarily, without coercion, or fear of coercion on the part of her husband or any other person whomsoever. Dated at ———.

A. B. C. D., J. P.

Which Certificate shall have the same force and be as valid as if the same had been made and certified under the provisions of an Act passed in the Thirty-seventh year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, entitled “An Act for the more easy barring of Dower.”

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Justices shall be entitled to receive the sum of Two Shillings and Six Pence, for granting the Certificate authorised by this Act.

Justices Fee, Two Shillings and Six Pence.

CHAP. XI.

AN ACT to revive and continue a certain Act passed in the Fourth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled “An Act to repeal an Act passed in the Forty-fifth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled ‘An Act to regulate the Trial of Controverted Elections, or Returns of Members to serve in the House of Assembly, and to make more effectual provision for such Trials:’” and also, a certain other Act passed in the Eighth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled “An Act to continue and amend the Law now in force for the Trial of Controverted Elections.

[Passed 13th February, 1833.]

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Fourth year of the Reign of His late Majesty, entitled “An Act to repeal an Act passed in the Forty-fifth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled ‘An Act to regulate the Trial of Controverted Elections, or Returns of Members to serve in the House of Assembly, and to make more effectual provision for such Trials:’” and also, an Act passed in the Eighth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled “An Act to continue and amend the Law now in force for the Trial of Controverted Elections” have been allowed to expire: And whereas it would greatly facilitate the proceedings on such Trials, if these Laws were revived:—Be it therefore enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council
