V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the first election of Members of the said Corporation shall be holden on the first Monday in the month of April next, at some place within each Ward respectively, to be appointed by the Sheriff of the Eastern District, who shall give public notice thereof at least six days before the said election; and that the said Sheriff of the Eastern District shall preside at the first election for one of the said Wards, and the Deputy Sheriff, or other person appointed for that purpose by the Sheriff of the said District, shall preside at the first election for the other Ward, that is to say, each respectively shall preside at the first election for such Ward as the Sheriff shall direct, and shall declare the persons in each of the said Wards, having the greatest number of votes, to be duly elected as Members of the said Corporation, and shall give notice thereof to the persons so elected within six days after such election.

Notice to persons Elected.

VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Members of the said Corporation so chosen, shall serve until the first Monday in the month of April in the next year, and until a new Board shall be chosen and formed as hereinafter mentioned, and that on the first Monday in the month of April in every year an election shall be holden in each of the said Wards in the said Town for choosing two Members of the said Corporation before the Bailiff of the said Ward, who shall be appointed from time to time by the said Corporation, and who shall appoint the place for holding the said election, and shall give notice thereof and proceed in all respects as the Sheriff of the Eastern District aforesaid is hereby required to do at and after the first election to be holden as aforesaid.

Time of service.

Annual Elections.

Before whom.

Place of Election.

VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That before any person shall proceed to hold an election under this Act he shall take the following oath, which any Justice of the Peace for the Eastern District shall have authority to administer, that is to say :—

Oath to be taken by persons holding Elections.

“ I solemnly swear that I will faithfully and impartially, to the best of my ability, discharge the duty of Presiding Officer at the Election which I am about to hold for a Member of the Board of Police in the Town of Cornwall—so help me God.”

VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Officer presiding at any election under this Act shall have authority, and he is hereby required at the request of any person qualified to vote at such election, to examine on oath, or affirmation, (when the party is allowed to affirm) any Candidate for the office of Member of the said Corporation respecting his qualification to be elected to the said office ; and shall also have authority, and is hereby required upon such request as aforesaid, to examine on oath, or affirmation, (when the party is allowed to affirm) any person tendering his vote at any election respecting his right to vote ; and that the oath to be administered for either of the said purposes shall and may be in the form following :—

examine Candidate or Voter on oath, as to Qualification.

Form of Oath.

“ You shall true answer make to all such questions as the officer presiding at this election shall put to you respecting your qualification to be elected at this election, or respecting your qualification to vote at this election, (as the case may be) so help you God.”

And the affirmation to be taken shall be according to the common form of an affirmation to the same effect.

False swearing perjury.

IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person, being examined upon oath or affirmation under this Act in regard to his qualification to vote or to be elected, shall wilfully forswear himself, he shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury, and on conviction thereof shall suffer as in other cases of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Presiding Officer to give public notice of result of Election, and of first meeting.

A fifth Member to be appointed at first meeting.

In case of disagreement, such fifth Member

to be elected by inhabitants generally.

Appointment of a President.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Members so elected as aforesaid shall, within ten days after the appointment or election of the fifth Member of the said Corporation as aforesaid, appoint one of their number President: and the said President and Members shall form the said Corporation, and shall hold their office until the first Monday in the month of April in the ensuing year, and until the election and formation of a new Board.

Member refusing to take oath of office to forfeit Ten Pounds, how recoverable.

Exemption from penalty.

XV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if either of the Members elected or appointed as aforesaid, after notice thereof, shall neglect or refuse for ten days to take the oath of office hereinafter contained, which any of the said Members so to be elected or appointed as aforesaid is hereby authorised to administer to the others, he shall for such neglect or refusal forfeit the sum of Ten Pounds, to be recovered with costs by information before any Justice of the Peace, who is authorised to proceed in the same manner as hereinafter is provided for the recovery of any penalty for the transgression of any order or regulation of the said Corporation: Provided, that no person having been elected a Member of the said Corporation during his absence from the said Town, or who at the time of the election shall openly give notice to the officer presiding that he will not accept the office, shall be subject to the penalty hereinbefore stated for his refusal to act as a Member of the said Corporation.

Vacancies, how to be supplied.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case any vacancy shall at any time happen among the Members of the said Corporation, by neglect or refusal to take the oath of office hereinafter contained within the time hereinbefore limited, or by death, removal from the Town, or from any other cause, the Corporation shall issue a Precept to the Bailiff of the Ward for which the Member whose office shall have become vacant was chosen, to hold an election for the said Ward, giving notice of the time and place of holding the said election for another Member or Members, and the Member or Members so elected.

shall hold office until the next annual election, or until others are chosen in their places; and that if the vacancy shall occur in the office of the Member appointed by the four Members elected as aforesaid, or elected by the Town generally, such vacancy shall be filled by the appointment of the then Members of the said Corporation or a majority of them, and in case they cannot agree then in the same manner as is provided for the election of the fifth Member by the Electors of the said Town generally; and in case any such vacancy shall happen among the Members elected at the first election of Members of the said Corporation by one of the Members neglecting or refusing to take the oath of office as aforesaid, or in case it shall happen that the Member appointed by the Members elected after the first election, or the Members elected by the Town generally after the first election, shall neglect or refuse to take the oath of office as aforesaid, then the precept shall issue to the Sheriff of the said Eastern District as herein before provided.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case it shall at any time happen that an election or appointment of Members shall not be made on any day when pursuant to this Act it ought to have been made, the said Corporation shall not for that cause be deemed to be dissolved, but that it shall and may be lawful on any other day to hold and make an election or appointment of Members, in such manner as shall have been regulated by the laws and ordinances of the said Corporation.

Provision in case of omission to hold election at time appointed.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Corporation from time to time to establish such Ordinances, By-Laws and Regulations as they may think reasonable in the said Town; to regulate and license victualing houses, and ordinaries where fruit, victuals and liquors, not distilled, shall be sold to be eaten or drunk in such houses or groceries; to regulate wharves and quays; to regulate the weighing of hay and measuring of wood; to regulate carts and carmen; to regulate slaughter-houses; to prevent the firing of any guns, pistols, squibs and fire-balls, or injuring or destroying trees growing or planted for shade or ornament in the said Town; to prevent the pulling down or defacing of sign-boards, or inscribing or drawing any indecent words, figures or pictures, on any building, wall or fence, or other public place, and generally to prevent vice and preserve good order in the said Town; to enter into and examine all dwelling-houses, warehouses, shops, yards, and out-houses, to ascertain whether such places are in a dangerous state with respect to fires, and to direct them to be put in a safe and secure condition; to appoint fire wardens and fire Engineers; to appoint and remove Firemen; to make such rules and ration under the authority of this Act, such person shall, for every such offence, forfeit the sum which in every such order, rule or regulation shall be specified, with costs, to be recovered by information before the said Corporation; to be levied of the goods and chattels of such offender, and in default of such goods and chattels, the offender shall be liable to be committed to the common Gaol of the District, for a time not exceeding one month, in the discretion of the said Corporation, before whom such offender shall have been convicted, and that no person shall be deemed an incompetent Witness upon any information under this Act, by reason of his being an Inhabitant of the said Town of Cornwall: Provided always, that the information and complaint for a breach of any orders or regulations of the said Corporation shall be made within fifteen days of the time of the offence committed.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That all penalties recovered under the provisions of this Act shall be paid into the Treasury of the said Corporation, and applied in the same manner as other monies coming into the said Treasury may be applied for the public uses of the said Town.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Corporation shall and may, in the said Town of Cornwall, perform all the functions and exercise all the authority now by law given to Justices of the Peace acting within their Divisions, with respect to making or amending any street, or highway or road within the said Town.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Corporation to fix upon a site for a Market in the said Town, and to enter into and make such arrangements or agreements in behalf of the said Town for the purchase of such site, or for procuring the same from Government, as shall to them or a majority of them appear just and reasonable, and the said Corporation shall give at least six weeks notice in some Newspaper published in the said Town of Cornwall, (or on the Court-house and three most public places within the said Town, in the event of there being no Newspaper therein, or the proprietor thereof refusing to publish the same,) of the site intended for such Market, and if any objection, in writing, to such site shall within the said period of six weeks be presented or declared to the said Corporation, or any Member thereof, signed by twelve persons entitled to vote within the said Town, a public meeting of the Inhabitants shall be called, and a time and place for such meeting shall be fixed by the said Corporation, who shall give at least six days notice thereof, and a majority of the persons present at such meeting, entitled to vote under this Act, shall decide whether such proposed site shall be confirmed or not, and the Sheriff of the said District shall preside at such meeting, and conduct the proceedings thereof, and that when the site for the said Market shall be established, it shall then and in such case be the Market-place of said Town, any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Corporation, when such site shall have been obtained and confirmed, shall have full power and authority to establish a Market thereon, for the sale of such commodities as may be deemed necessary, and shall also have power to make and establish such Rules, By-laws and Regulations, for the good order and government of the said Market, and the buildings, avenues, passages and appurtenances thereto belonging, as may to them appear necessary: Provided always, nevertheless, that such Rules, By-laws and Regulations shall have no force or effect whatever, until the same shall be examined and approved of by the General Quarter Session of the Peace, in and for the said District, and signed in testimony thereof by the Chairman of the said Court.

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case an equality of votes should happen at any election for the Members of the said Corporation, it shall and may be lawful for the person presiding at the said election to give a casting vote, and he shall not be required to be possessed of the qualifications necessary to enable him to vote at the said Elections for the said Town, and that except in case of the votes being equal, it shall not be lawful for the person presiding at any election under this Act to vote at such election.

3. FORM OF OATH.

“ I, A. B. do swear, that I will faithfully discharge the duty of a Member of ‘The Board of Police of the Town of Cornwall,’ to the best of my skill and knowledge.”

XXX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the Sheriff of the Eastern District to preside at all elections under the authority of this Act, so long as he shall reside within the limits of the said Town of Cornwall, any thing in this Act to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any action or suit shall be brought against any person or persons, for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, such action or suit shall be brought within six calendar months next after the fact committed, and not afterwards, and the Defendant or Defendants in such action or suit, may plead the general issue only, and give this Act and the special matter in evidence on the trial.

59 Geo. 3, c. —, repealed.

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That a certain Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty, King George the Third, entitled "An Act to empower the Commissioners of the Peace for the Eastern District in their Court of General Quarter Sessions assembled, to establish and regulate the time for holding a Market in the Town of Cornwall, in the said District" be, and the same is hereby repealed.

CHAP. XXVI.

AN ACT to define the limits of the Town of Port Hope, and to establish a Police therein.

[Passed 6th March, 1834.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS from the great increase of population in the Town of Port Hope, in the District of Newcastle, it is necessary to make further provision than by law exists for the internal regulation thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That there shall be in the said Town a Board of Police, to be composed and constituted in the manner herein-after described, which shall be and is hereby declared to be a Body Corporate and Politic in fact and in Law, by the name of the "President and Board of Police of Port Hope," and by that name they and their successors may have perpetual succession, and be capable of suing and being sued, impleading and being impleaded, in all Courts, and in all actions, causes and complaints whatsoever; and may have a common Seal, and may alter the same at pleasure; and shall be in law capable
