CHAP. III.

AN ACT to prevent Bodies Corporate, within this Province, from entering upon, and taking possession of the Lands of the Crown, without permission from His Majesty.

[Passed 20th April, 1836.]

WHEREAS it is necessary for the preservation of the Rights of His Majesty, to prevent by Law the entering upon any of His Majesty's Preamble. Lands in this Province, without his assent, by any Body Corporate, created for the purpose of erecting or making Rail Roads, Canals, or other works of a like description, within the said Province: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That it shall not be lawful Entry on Crown Lands not to be made without special license. for any Body Corporate now created, or hereafter to be created, within this Province, their Servants or Agents, or any of them, at any time or times from and after the passing of this Act, to enter into and upon, have, hold, use or enjoy, for the purposes of such Body Corporate, or for any other purpose, any part or parts of the Lands or Grounds of or belonging to the King's Majesty; without the license and consent of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, for such purposes first had and obtained, signified and had under the hand and Seal of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of this Province for the time being, any thing in any Act of Incorporation of this Province to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAP. IV.

AN ACT to repeal and amend certain parts of an Act passed in the Thirty-sixth year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled, "An Act to amend an Act for regulating the manner of Licensing Public Houses, and for the more easy conviction of Persons selling Spirituous Liquors without License, and for other purposes therein mentioned."

[Passed, 20th April, 1836.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Laws now in force inflicting Penalties upon persons selling Spirituous Liquors without License, are found by experience to prove ineffectual, by reason of the Fine in many cases being unreasonably heavy, and the Justices of the Peace having no discretion in the premises: And whereas it is expedient to amend the same: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That so much of an Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the Thirty-sixth year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, entitled, "An Act to amend an Act entitled, 'An Act for regulating the manner of Licensing Public Houses, and for the more easy convicting of persons selling Spirituous Liquors without License,'" as fixes the penalty upon any person or persons selling Spirituous Liquors without License, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.
