

CHAP. XX.

AN ACT to postpone the Sale of Lands in arrear for Taxes.

[Passed 6th March, 1838.]

WHEREAS large quantities of land within several Districts of this Province are advertised to be sold for arrears of Rates and Assessments: Preamble.
And whereas, under the peculiar circumstances of this Province, it is desirable that the sale of lands in arrear, and now advertised, or about to be advertised for sale, should be postponed: Be it therefore enacted, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That no lands in arrear for taxes, and advertised for sale, or liable to be advertised for sale, or liable to be sold, shall be exposed to sale during the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight: Provided always, that from and after the expiration of the said year eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, the same proceedings shall be taken and adopted which by Law it is now provided shall be pursued before any lands shall be sold, any Law of this Province to the contrary notwithstanding. Sales of Land now liable for arrear of Taxes, postponed till expiration of the year. Same proceedings as though no such postponement.

CHAP. XXI.

AN ACT to alter and amend sundry Acts regulating the appointment and duties of Township Officers.

amount, and finally settle his account with the Treasurer, on or before the third Tuesday in December in each and every year; and that no Collector who has not so settled his account with the Treasurer, shall be eligible to be elected to any Township office at the next Township meeting, and shall also be proceeded against, as hereinafter provided, for the recovery of the amount then due for that year: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for every such Collector to reserve for himself the following fees, as a compensation for his services:—If the Assessment of the Township for which he is Collector, does not amount to fifty pounds, he shall retain a sum equal to eight pounds for every hundred pounds he collects; if above fifty pounds, and under one hundred pounds, a sum equal to seven pounds ten shillings for every hundred pounds; if above one hundred pounds, and under one hundred and fifty pounds, a sum equal to seven pounds five shillings for every hundred pounds; if above one hundred and fifty pounds, and under two hundred pounds, a sum equal to seven pounds for every hundred pounds; if above two hundred pounds, and under two hundred and fifty pounds, a sum equal to six pounds ten shillings for every hundred pounds; and for all sums over two hundred and fifty pounds, a sum equal to five pounds for every hundred pounds.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person who shall occupy a house, farm or tenement, in any Town, Township or place, in this Province, and shall have been assessed for the same, shall leave the said Town, Township or place, before the said assessed rates have been paid, it shall and may be lawful for the said Collector to ask, claim and recover, the said rates (except such part thereof as shall have been charged on movable property) from the owner of the said house, farm or tenement: Provided, the same shall be demanded fourteen days before the second Monday in December in each year; but should the year in which the said rates are due, expire before the said rates be demanded, then and in that case the Collector shall be liable for the amount; nevertheless the said Collector shall be entitled to proceed, by warrant of distress, against any such tenant, although he may have left the Township; and that the Collector may, in like manner, proceed to recover from all other persons residing in his Township, the assessed rates which shall not have been paid by the first Monday in November in each and every year, the same having been demanded fourteen days previous to the date of the Magistrate's warrant of distress.

XX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the Overseers of Highways of any Township, and they are hereby severally authorised and required to superintend, make and keep in repair, the highways, roads, streets and bridges, that may be allotted to them severally, from time to time, and ordered by the Magistrates acting for the division; which divisions the Magistrates acting within the division are hereby authorised and empowered to make at a Special Sessions, by them for that purpose to be holden, on or before the third Saturday in the month of April in each year, of which Special Sessions at least six days public notice shall be given, by putting up the same in at least three public places within each Township; and every such Overseer shall, after having received such order, notify all persons within his division, liable to perform Statute Labour, and order them, after having given three days notice of the day, hour and place, which notice may be delivered either in writing or verbally at the place of residence of said persons so liable to work, within the time stated in such order, on such part of the roads, bridges or highways, as they are directed to make, mend or repair; and shall and may direct all persons performing such labour to destroy such weeds as may be, in his opinion, hurtful to good husbandry; and shall give to every person who may have done his Statute Labour for the year, requiring the same, a certificate under his hand of having performed his share of Statute Labour in that Township for the year, in order to prevent such person from being called out again in any other Township into which he may remove.

Authorised by the Magistrates.

Notice to persons liable to perform Statute Labour;

Hurtful weeds to be destroyed;

Certificates to such persons as have performed Statute Labour.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the Township Clerk for each and every Township in this Province, to obtain a list of persons in his Township liable to perform Statute Labour, showing the number of days each person is liable to work, which list the Overseers of Highways for the Township shall have authority to take a copy or extract from the same.

Township Clerk to obtain list of persons liable to perform Statute Labour.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when any road or highway passes any deep water, precipice or other dangerous place, the Overseer in whose division such may be situated, shall, by Statute Labour, cause good and sufficient guards, rails or fences, to be erected, in order to make such place safe, and shall also erect finger posts at all such places within his division, as shall be necessary for the direction of travellers.

Overseers to erect guard rails and fences.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any person liable to perform Statute Labour, according to law, may compound for such duty, if he or she shall think fit, on or before the first Monday in May, by paying the Overseer acting for the division in which he resides, the sum of two shillings and sixpence for every day which he or she may be required to work as aforesaid; and such Overseer is hereby authorised and required to accept the said sum in lieu of such Statute Labour, and shall and may lay out and expend the same, as to him shall seem best, for the improvement of the roads and bridges allotted to his division, and render an account of the same as is provided by this Act: Provided always, that nothing herein-contained shall affect any provision in any Act passed for Macadamizing certain roads within this Province.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in order to provide materials for making or erecting bridges or causeways, or making or repairing any road with the money or labour of any Township, it shall and may be lawful for any Overseer of Highways, in the actual discharge of his duty, to direct the persons performing the work to cut down or make use of any trees or underwood standing upon any uninclosed and unimproved lands, and also to break up and make use of any stone upon any unimproved and uncultivated land that the Overseer may think necessary for that purpose, doing no unnecessary damage to the premises from whence they are taken.

Overseers may direct the cutting down and using of any trees on unimproved lands.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the roads and highways in and through every Township, and also a just share of any road actually required and necessary, running between the same and any other Township, shall be cleared, repaired and maintained, by the inhabitants thereof; and that every person liable to perform Statute Labour, if not compounded for as aforesaid, shall, either in person or by a sufficient and able-bodied man in his stead, be obliged, under the direction of an Overseer acting for the division, to work faithfully and diligently on the said road, and shall bring with him such tools or implements useful for the purpose as he may be owner of, and be directed by the Overseer to bring, for and during the time he may be liable to work on the said road, in each and every year, allowing eight hours to each day's work, exclusive of the time of going and coming to and from the place of work; and that every person within the Township keeping a cart, waggon or team, of one or more horses, or yoke of oxen, shall send, on every day to be appointed by the said Overseers, a cart or waggon, or other implement and team, and one able-bodied man to drive the same for such space of time as he shall be liable to work on the said roads, according to law, allowing eight hours for such day's work, which said day's work, with a team and driver, shall be held equivalent to two days' personal labour for one man; and if any labourer or driver shall refuse or neglect to work faithfully, or to carry sufficient loads during the time above-mentioned, it shall and may be lawful for the said Overseer, and he is hereby authorised and required to discharge such labourer, and the person furnishing such team shall be liable to the forfeiture which every such person would have incurred by virtue of this Act, in case such labourer had not attended, or such team and driver had not been sent, and shall not be allowed for the part or portion of the day which he may have laboured.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the several Overseers of Highways in the several Townships, shall cause all Statute Labour under their direction and control to be performed, and all monies coming into their hands, in lieu of Statute Labour, to be expended between the tenth day of May and the twenty-fourth day of July, in each and every year; and in default thereof, shall be liable to forfeit, to be expended on the roads in the Township in the succeeding year, the same sum as is hereinafter imposed for refusing to make and sign the declaration of office.

Statute Labour to be performed, and money expended between the 10th May and 24th July.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every person liable to perform Statute Labour, in any Township or division, and not having compounded for the same, according to law, who shall neglect or refuse, after having been duly notified as aforesaid, to attend himself, or send a sufficient able-bodied man in his stead, with such carriage, team, implement or instrument, as may be by this Act required by the Overseers, at the time and place appointed, shall forfeit and pay the sum of five shillings for each day he shall so neglect or refuse, to be recovered on complaint of the said Overseer of Highways, by warrant under the hand and seal of a Magistrate, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person so offending, rendering the overplus, (if any there be,) to the party, after deducting the penalty, and legal charges attending such distress and sale; and the imposing of any such fine or penalty on any person, shall not in anywise release such person from performing any duty required of him by this Act, but he shall be liable and subject to perform the same, at any time within the current year, when called upon so to do by the proper officer, as though no such penalty had been imposed.

Persons neglecting to perform Statute labour, after warning, shall pay five shillings per day.

Persons not released from performing Statute labour in consequence of being fined.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person shall wilfully stop up any road or roads in any Township, or shall pull down or destroy any fence, railing or guard, that shall have been erected along any water, bridge or precipice, for the safety of travellers, or any guide or finger post, such person or persons so offending, shall forfeit and pay, on conviction for every such offence, a sum not less than five shillings, nor more than five pounds, to be recovered in the manner provided by the preceding clause of this Act; or in case any tree or trees shall be cut down in or fall out of any enclosed land, or other lands which shall be occupied by a resident settler, in such a way as to obstruct any public road or highway, or any other thing which may be represented as a nuisance, the owner or occupier of such land shall remove the same within twenty-four hours after notice received of such obstruction, under the penalty of ten shillings for every day the obstruction shall continue, the penalty to be recovered in like manner as aforesaid.

Persons assessed under twenty-five pounds when exempted from Statute labour.

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, any person who is not assessed more than twenty-five pounds, and who, by reason of age, sickness, numerous family or misfortune, may be in poor and indigent circumstances, may apply to the Town Wardens for the Township in which such person resides, and the said Town Wardens, on such application, having first notified the Overseer acting for the division in which such person resides, to appear on the part of the public, shall enquire into the situation and circumstances of the person making such application, the said Town Wardens may exempt such person from the performance of the whole or part of his Statute Labour upon the highways for the year, and give him a certificate to that effect, which shall be the Overseer's acquittance for the work.

Omissions of names on assessment roll, or coming into the township after the same is made up, not to exempt the parties;

XXX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if through any inadvertency or otherwise, the name of any person which should have been inserted in the Assessment roll shall be omitted, such person shall be liable to work on the highways in the Township in which they reside, in the same proportion as if no such omission had taken place; and the Overseer is hereby authorised and required to insert, in his road list, for labour, any such person as may come into the Township to reside, after the Assessment roll has been taken for the year, and to call them out to perform Statute Labour, in the same manner as other persons who reside in the Township: Provided always, that immigrant labourers shall have resided full six months in this Province.

Exception.

Township Overseer to make out lists of all persons within their divisions liable to Statute labour, of labour done, monies received and expended, verified upon oath;

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Overseers of each and every Township shall severally make out a true list or account of all persons within their respective divisions, who are liable to work on the highways, and of the labour done or unperformed by any person liable to perform or compound for the same; and also of all monies that may come into his hands by virtue of his office, and of the expenditure or payment of the same; which list and account shall be subscribed by such Overseer, and delivered, verified upon oath, which oath any Magistrate of the District is hereby authorised to administer, to the Township Clerk, on or before the first day of September in each and every year; and the said account shall be examined by the said Clerk for the purpose of being placed with the records of the Township; and it shall be the duty of the said Township Clerk, on or before the first day of December in each and every year, to furnish the Magistrates of the division with the names of the Overseers of Roads who shall not have so rendered their account for the current year, in order that the said Overseers of Highways may be called upon for their accounts; and every Overseer of Roads who shall neglect to render his account as aforesaid, shall be liable to the same penalty, to be recovered in the same manner as provided by this Act, for persons refusing to take the oath or declaration of office.

Township Clerk to furnish Magistrates with names of Overseers of roads who have not furnished their accounts;

Defaulters subject to fine.

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of any Pound Keeper appointed under the provisions of this Act, to provide himself with sufficient yards or enclosures for the safe keeping of all such animals as it may be his duty to impound, and he is hereby authorised and required to impound all animals unlawfully running at large, trespassing and doing damage, that may be delivered to him by any persons resident within his Division taking up the same; and it shall be his duty to furnish the same with necessary food and drink; and if after the space of forty-eight hours the said animals shall not be claimed and redeemed by the owner, or some one on his behalf, paying the Pound Keeper his lawful demand and charges, and the amount of damages awarded, in the manner hereinafter mentioned to have been done by such animals, to the person taking up the same, he shall cause a notice in writing to be affixed in three public places in the Township for at least fifteen days, which notice shall give a description of such animals, and also state the time and place at which he intends to expose the same for sale; and if the owner of such animals, or some one in his or her behalf, does not within the time specified in such notice as aforesaid, redeem the same, by paying to the said Pound Keeper his legal fees, which shall be regulated from time to time by the Town Wardens of each Township, who are hereby required to regulate the same, and furnish the copy or schedule to the Township Clerk for the information of the Pound Keepers, and charges and the damages awarded to the person taking up such animals, the said Pound Keeper shall proceed to sell the same to the highest bidder, at the time and place mentioned in the said notice, which sale is hereby declared to be valid in law; and the said Pound Keeper shall, after deducting his own legal charges and the damages awarded to the person taking up the said animals, provided he is the party injured, return the overplus (if any there be) to the original owner: Provided always, that if no person shall appear to claim the said animals within the space of three months after public notice and sale as aforesaid, the said Pound Keeper shall pay the overplus (if any) into the hands of the Pound-keepers to provide themselves with enclosures, and to impound all animals unlawfully running at large, and furnish them with food and drink.

If animals not claimed, and lawful demands not paid, they may, after legal notice, be sold;

Overplus arising from sale to be returned to owner, if claimed.

Township Clerk for the time being, to be laid out and expended for the improvement of the roads and bridges within the said Township.

How to proceed when horses, oxen or cows are impounded, and owners are not known.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any Ox or Oxen, Horse or Horses, Cow or Cows, shall be impounded as aforesaid, and not claimed before the expiration of fifteen days as aforesaid, and the owner thereof shall not be known by the said Pound Keeper, then and in that case the Pound Keeper shall not sell such Ox or Oxen, Horse or Horses, Cow or Cows, at the time stated in such notice, but shall postpone the sale thereof for the space of forty days, at the expiration of which time such Pound Keeper shall proceed to sell the same, and dispose of the proceeds in the manner mentioned in the last preceding clause of this Act: Provided always, that the owner of the same may at any time before such sale redeem such animal or animals by paying demands as aforesaid.

Owner may redeem.

Persons taking up cattle to be impounded, must state their demands in writing;

XXXIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of all and every person taking any animal or animals to a Pound Keeper to be impounded, at the same time, or within twenty-four hours, to state in writing to the said Pound Keeper, all demands he may have against the owner of such animal or animals, for damages done by them; and in case the owner of such animal or animals shall tender to the Pound Keeper the full sum which shall or may be awarded as damages to the party suffering the same, with the costs then incurred, such owner shall not be liable to any costs afterwards incurred, but all such subsequent costs in such case shall be borne by the party claiming extravagant damages.

Party claiming extravagant damages to pay costs.

Three freeholders may appraise damages, and determine upon the lawfulness of fences;

XXXV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the Pound Keeper, and he is hereby authorised and required, when the owner of any animal impounded shall object to the amount of damages claimed, within forty-eight hours after the same have been impounded as aforesaid, to notify three disinterested resident Freeholders or Householdors, farmers in the said Township, to appraise the damages, and also to judge of the sufficiency of the fence enclosing the ground wherein such animals were found doing damage, and such Freeholders or Householdors, farmers, or any two of them, shall within twenty-four hours after the receipt of such notice view said fence, and determine whether the same is a lawful fence according to the regulations of the Township meeting on the subject, and if so, appraise the damage done; and having reduced this their award to writing, shall deliver the same signed with their names to the Pound Keeper, within the space of twenty-four hours after having been so notified: Provided always, that if any person shall neglect or refuse to attend to examine said damage after being notified as aforesaid, he shall be liable to a penalty of five shillings for every such neglect or refusal, to be recovered and applied in the same manner as fines imposed by this Act for refusing or neglecting to perform Statute Labour: Provided always, that the owner of any animal or animals not permitted to run at large by the regulations of such Township meeting, shall be liable for any damage done by such animal or animals, notwithstanding that the fence enclosing the premises was not of the height required by the said regulations.

Persons refusing to appraise may be fined;

Persons liable for damage, if cattle unlawfully allowed to run at large.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person legally appointed to any Township Office agreeably to the provisions of this Act, shall neglect or refuse to make the declaration of office, and to sign his name thereto in the Township Clerk's book, within twenty days after his being so appointed, or after making said declaration, shall neglect or refuse to perform the duties of his office agreeably to the provisions of this Act, or if any person shall neglect or refuse to deliver to the Assessor a true list of his or her ratable or personal property, as the law directs, in manner and form aforesaid, or shall wilfully mis-state such ratable property, such person shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than one pound nor more than five pounds, with costs, for every such neglect, refusal or violation of the laws, to be levied by distress and sale of the Offender's goods and chattels, eight days previous notice of said sale being given, and the overplus (if any there be) being rendered to the owner.

Persons neglecting to comply with provisions of this Act may be fined.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any person or persons to examine any document on record, in possession of the Township Clerk, on payment of one shilling and three pence, as the Clerk's fee for his trouble in making or assisting to make the same.

Records of Township Clerk may be examined on payment of one shilling and three pence.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the District Treasurer, and he is hereby authorised and required to prepare and place before the Quarter Sessions, to be holden in said District next after the first day of January in each and every year, a list of such Collectors of rates as may be in arrears, and shall not have paid over the rates to the Treasurer for the year in which he or they shall have been appointed; and it shall be the duty of the Magistrates in Quarter Sessions assembled, to issue their warrant, and distrain the goods and chattels of said Collector or Collectors, and cause the same to be sold, after having given twenty days notice of the time and place of such sale, to the amount of rates due to the District, with the District Treasurers to present to Magistrates a list of Collectors in arrears; who may proceed against them and sureties.

costs thereon; and also may proceed in like manner against the goods and chattels of the Sureties named in said Collector's bond.

Persons chosen as Township Commissioners may serve as Township Wardens.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Township Commissioners, who have been appointed at the Township meeting on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, to perform the duties of Township Wardens, provided for in this Act; and their offices as Township Commissioners shall hereafter cease, and that the duties of all other Township Officers, appointed at the annual Township meeting aforesaid, shall be performed and regulated agreeably to the provisions contained in this Act.

How to proceed when Township Rates have not been assessed or collected.

XL. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case it shall have happened that any Township in this Province shall, from neglect of the Assessors or Collectors, or other cause, not have been assessed, or the rates therein not have been collected for any one year or more previously to the passing of this Act, when by law it should have been done, it shall and may be lawful for the Magistrates of the District in which such Township or Townships are situated, in Quarter Sessions assembled, to authorise the Collector for the current year to collect the said rates in like manner and under the same provisions and penalties provided for by this Act.

Assessors to make out schedules of lands not included in their rolls, for Clerks of Peace.

XLI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the Assessors of each and every Parish, Township or place, within this Province, to make out a schedule of all lands within the same, not included in their several Assessment Rolls, and they shall sign and deliver the same to the Clerks of the Peace of the several Districts along with the Assessment Rolls, for the information of the Treasurer, in the following form:—

Town Wardens may compound for Statute labour for five years.

XLII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Town Wardens of any Township, legally appointed according to the provisions of this Act, to compound or agree with any person or persons resident in the Township, for making in a permanent and substantial manner, any part of any public road within their Township, in lieu of his or their Statute Labour, which he or they may be by law required to perform in the Township, for any number of years not exceeding five, which agreement shall be committed to writing and signed by the parties, and thereupon it shall be binding on the Town Wardens and their successors, and the other person or persons being a party to such agreement, and upon the due performance and completion of such agreement, the person or persons performing the same shall be exempt from all Statute Labour in the Township for the full term of time agreed upon as aforesaid.

XLIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case any person or persons, after having subscribed to any agreement as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to perform the same in the manner and within the time specified in such agreement, he or they shall be liable to the like penalty that persons are by this Act who refuse or neglect to perform their Statute Labour.

Persons failing in agreement liable to penalty.

XLIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if it shall happen that any person or persons shall enter into an agreement with the Town Wardens as aforesaid, and in pursuance of such agreement make a part or the whole of the road required by such agreement, but upon which there will arise a dispute between the Town Wardens making the agreement or their successors and the other party thereto, touching the fulfilment of such agreement, such dispute shall and may be submitted to three Overseers of Highways acting in the Township for the year; and such three Overseers of Highways shall be drawn by a public and impartial ballot from the whole list of Overseers of Highways, acting in the Township for the year; which ballot shall be made by the Township Clerk, who shall give the two contending parties due notice of the time and place where such ballot shall take place; and it shall be the duty of such Clerk to appoint a time and place for the meeting of such Overseers of Highways so balloted, giving them, and also the parties to such dispute, at least eight days' notice; and thereupon it shall be the duty of such Overseers of Highways to meet, and after having the said agreement submitted to them, and examining the premises, to make such award as to them shall appear just and right, which award shall be binding on the parties and be final.

Disputes to be submitted to three Overseers of highways, chosen by ballot.

Contending parties to have notice.

Awards binding.

XLV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Peace in every District, to make out a general return of the population of his District from the several returns which he may receive from the Assessors for the year, and to transmit the same to the office of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province for the time being, on or before the first day of July in each and every year; and if such return shall not contain the whole population of his District, he shall send in a return of such Townships as may be deficient, as soon as practicable after he shall be enabled to do so by returns of the Assessors of such Townships.

Clerks of the Peace to make out returns of population, and transmit to Lieut. Governor.

Persons refusing to pay rates, liable to distress and sale of goods and chattels.

XLVI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any person whose name is inserted upon such Assessment roll, shall neglect or refuse to pay the sum or rate for which he or she stands rated in manner aforesaid, for the space of fourteen days after demand duly made of the same by the said Collector or his agent duly appointed, the said Collector, upon oath before one Magistrate, of such demand and refusal of payment as aforesaid, shall be entitled to demand an execution for the amount of such rate or rates, which execution the said Magistrate is hereby authorised and required to grant; and upon receipt of the same, the said Collector shall, and he is hereby authorised and required to levy the same by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person so neglecting or refusing to pay, having eight days' previous notice of such sale, in three public places in the Township, and render the overplus (if any there be) to the owner thereof, after deducting the amount of the rates assessed, and the legal charges of the distress and sale.

Fees to Constable.

XLVII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Constable to whom any warrant, execution or summons, may be directed, authorised to be issued by this Act, shall be entitled to the following fees, and no more, for executing such warrant, execution or summons, namely: Four-pence per mile for every mile he may have to travel to execute the same, which travel shall be verified upon oath, if required; and for levying, advertising, selling and making returns, two shillings and sixpence; for every summons served, eight-pence.

Town Wardens a corporate body.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Town Wardens appointed by this Act for their respective Townships, and their successors duly appointed, shall be as a Corporation to represent the whole inhabitants of the Township for which they are Town Wardens, and as such may have and hold the property of or belonging to the Township, and shall and may sue, prosecute or defend, in all presentments, indictments or actions, for and on behalf of the said Townships.

XLIX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any one to whom an oath or affirmation may be administered, under the provision of this Act, shall wilfully swear or affirm falsely, such false swearing or affirmation shall be deemed wilful and corrupt perjury, and the person guilty thereof shall and may be prosecuted and punished therefor as for wilful and corrupt perjury.

False swearing, perjury.

L. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case it shall be necessary to repair any sudden breach which may be caused in any public highway, by reason of any bridge or causeway giving way, or from any other casualty, or to remove any obstruction on account of snow, or to fix or set up beacons or stakes as a guide for travellers over any frozen waters, marsh, plain or other place, it shall and may be lawful for the Overseer or Overseers of Highways, in whose division the same may occur, and they are hereby required, to repair, remove or establish, as aforesaid, or cause the same to be done, by applying any money in their hands, and applicable to the roads and unappropriated, or to direct the application (for that purpose) of any Statute Labour subject to their control; and in case it shall happen that such Overseer or Overseers shall not at the time have any money or Statute Labour under his direction, which he may apply for the purposes aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for such Overseer to direct any person in his division, and liable to perform Statute Labour, to repair such breach, remove such obstruction, or erect such guides as aforesaid; and such Overseer shall keep an account of the number of days any person or persons may work on the roads for the purposes aforesaid, which account such Overseer shall transmit to the Clerk of the Township, to be laid before the Town Wardens of the Township; and the said Town Wardens, after examining the said account, if it shall appear just and expedient, may exempt any person who may have worked as aforesaid, from performing any part of his or her Statute Labour for the next year, and shall give such person as aforesaid a writing to that effect, which shall be taken and considered by the Overseer under whose direction such person may be liable to work, and credited to such person for so much of his Statute Labour; and any person who shall neglect or refuse to perform such labour, or obey the orders of the Overseer, when required to work as aforesaid, shall be liable to the same penalties, and which may be recovered and disposed of in the same way and manner, as is provided by this Act for neglecting to perform Statute Labour, or disobeying the Overseers of Highways, except such person can make it appear that he had a reasonable excuse for so doing: And provided also, that the said Overseer shall, and he is hereby required, to proportion such labour among the several persons within his divi-
