

CHAP. XLII.

AN ACT to authorise the admission of John Prince, Esquire, to practise as a Barrister and Attorney within this Province.

[Passed 6th March, 1838.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled, “An Act to repeal part of and amend an Act passed in the thirty-seventh year of His late Majesty’s reign, entitled, ‘An Act for the better regulating the practice of the Law, and to extend the provisions of the same’”: And whereas, it is among other things enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, no person shall be admitted by the Court of King’s Bench to practise as an Attorney in this Province, unless upon an actual service under articles for five years with some practising Attorney in this Province: And whereas, John Prince, Esquire, late of Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester, in England, a Solicitor and Attorney of Her Majesty’s Courts of Law and Equity, has been for some years a resident inhabitant of this Province, and during the late invasion of the Western District, rendered very zealous and effective service in its defence: And whereas, it is desirable that the Legislature should mark their approbation of the conduct of the said John Prince, by enabling him to practise in his profession in this Province, without incurring the delay which is required by the law in that behalf: Be it therefore enacted, by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, “An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty’s reign, entitled, ‘An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,” and by the authority of the same, That any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding, the Court of King’s Bench may, at its discretion, admit the said John Prince to practise as an Attorney in this Province.

Court of King’s Bench authorised to admit John Prince, to practise as an Attorney.

Law Society in its discretion to receive the said John Prince and introduce him as a Barrister, who being received at the bar of the Court of King’s Bench, may thenceforth practise as a Barrister.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Law Society may, at its discretion, receive into the same and introduce to the Court of King’s Bench, as a Barrister, the said John Prince; and thereupon being received at the Bar of the Court of King’s Bench, he shall thenceforth be authorised to practise the profession of the Law, as fully to all intents and purposes, as any Barrister now practises the same in this Province.

CHAP. XLIII.

AN ACT authorising the payment of Pensions to certain Militia during the late War with the United States of America, under certain restrictions.

[Passed 6th March, 1838.]

WHEREAS John Ryan, of the Township of Toronto, in the Home District; Peter Lampman, of Niagara, in the Niagara District; and Adam Stull, of Grantham, in the Niagara District, have petitioned the Legislature, praying to be restored to the Militia Pension List of this Province: And whereas, the said John Ryan, Peter Lampman, and Adam Stull, were wounded during the late war with the United States of America, and enjoyed a Pension up to the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one, and it is expedient that they should be restored to the Militia Pension List of this Province: Be it therefore enacted, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lieutenant Governor of this Province, upon the said John Ryan, Peter Lampman, and Adam Stull, respectively, producing the certificate of the Board authorised to be established by an Act passed in the first Session of the present Parliament, entitled, "An Act authorising the payment of Pensions to Militiamen disabled during the late war with the United States of America," under certain restrictions to cause the name of the said John Ryan, Peter Lampman, and Adam Stull, or either of them, to be restored to the Militia Pension List of this Province; and the said John Ryan, Peter Lampman, and Adam Stull, or either of them, on their or either of them being restored, shall from thenceforth be entitled to receive a Pension of Twenty Pounds per annum, in the same manner as other Militia Pensioners.

Preamble.

Lieutenant Governor authorised to restore the names of John Ryan, Peter Lampman, and Adam Stull, to pension list, under certain restrictions.
