

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper-Canada in North America. West Niagara: Titus G. Simons, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1797.

37 George III – Chapter 2

An Act to enable the inhabitants of the township of York, to assemble for the purpose of choosing and nominating Parish and Town Officers.

Whereas by an act passed in the thirty-third year of his Majesty's reign, entitled "An act to provide for the nomination and appointment of parish and town officers," the inhabitants of any parish, township, reputed township or place, can only be assembled on the first Monday in the month of March in every year: and whereas it is expedient that in the township or York, the inhabitants should be immediately assembled for the purposes mentioned in the said act, Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the legislative council and assembly of the province of Upper-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue, and under the authority of an act passed in the parliament of Great-Britain, entitled "An act to repeal certain parts of an act passed in the fourteenth year of his Majesty's reign, entitled "An act for making more effectual provision for the government of the province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the government of the said province," and by the authority of the same, That the inhabitants of the said township shall be called together as soon after the passing of this act as convenient, in the same manner and for the same purposes as are directed by the said recited act, and any two of his Majesty's justices are hereby empowered to appoint one or more constable or constables as they shall think fit, to serve in the said township.
