

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper-Canada in North America. York: Titus G. Simons, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, 1799.

Laws passed in the Second Session of the Second Provincial Parliament, which were reserved for, and received His Majesty's Assent.

39 George III – Chapter 3 Session 2

An Act to repeal part of an act passed in the thirty-seventh year of the reign of his Majesty, entitled "An Act to extend the Jurisdiction and Regulate the Proceedings of the District Court and Court of Requests," and to make further provision for the same.

Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An act to repeal certain parts of an act passed in the fourteenth year of his Majesty's reign, entitled 'An act for making more effectual provision for the government of the province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the government of the said province,'" and by the authority of the same, That so much of an act passed in the thirty-seventh year of the reign of his Majesty, entitled "An act to extend the jurisdiction, and regulate the proceedings of the district court, and court of requests," as enacts, that no mileage be allowed for the service of the declaration or summons in the district court, or court of requests, be repealed.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to, and for the clerk of the said district court, to demand and receive the sum of two shillings and six pence, for each subpoena, and the sum of five shillings for each writ of execution.
