40 George III – Chapter 6

An Act for making a temporary provision for the regulation of trade, between this Province and the United States of America, by Land or by Inland Navigation.

Ι. Whereas it may be expedient to carry into effect that part of the treaty of amity, commerce and navigation, concluded between his Majesty and the United States of America, and signed at London in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety four, which authorizes the levying and collecting the same duties upon articles imported into this province, from the United States of America, by land or inland navigation, as the same would be liable to if imported by the port of Quebec, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and assembly of the province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an act passed in the parliament of Great Britain, entitled an act to repeal certain parts of an act passed in the fourteenth year of his Majesty's reign, entitled, "An Act for making more effectual provision for the government of the province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the government of the said province;" and by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the government of this province, by and with the advice and consent of his Majesty's Executive Council, by order, or orders to be from time to time issued, and published, to establish such ports of entry, and to make such other regulations for the purposes aforesaid, and for carrying on the trade by land or inland navigation, between the people and territories of his Majesty in this province, and the people and territories of the United States of America, as may be necessary, in order to carry such parts of the said treaty into effect, and all, and every such orders, and regulations shall have the same force, effect, and validity, as if the same were herein particularly repeated and enacted; any law, statute, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this act shall be in force until the first day of June, which will be in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one, and from thence to the end of the next session of the provincial parliament, and no longer.
