

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada in North America, passed in the year 1812.
York: John Cameron, 1812. (Session 1)

52 George III– Chapter 10 (Session 1)

An Act to amend an Act passed in the fiftieth year of his Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to provide for laying cut, amending and keeping in repair the Public Highways and Roads in this Province, and to repeal the Laws now in force for that purpose." Passed 6th March, 1812.

Whereas by the eighth clause of an Act passed in the fiftieth year of his Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to provide for the laying out, amending, and keeping in repair the Public Highways and Roads in this Province, and to repeal the Laws now in force for that purpose," it is provided, That all Surveyors of Highways, when employed to Act as such, shall be paid out of the District Treasury; and also by the fourth clause of the above recited Act, the Surveyors of Land, when directed by the Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled, and employed to survey any road or roads, are directed to be paid out of the District Treasury; and whereas it is found from experience, that many roads are unnecessarily laid out; for remedy thereof, Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with, the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act, passed in the fourteenth year of his Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for making more effectual Provision for the government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That when any roads shall be hereafter laid out under the authority of the above recited Act, that Shall not be confirmed by the Justices in General Quarter Sessions, then and in that case, the expence or charge of any Surveyor or Surveyors, at the rate and proportion as described in the above recited Act, shall be paid by the party applying for such survey, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.
