

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada in North America, passed in the year 1815.
Kingston: Stephen Miles, 1815.

55 George III – Chapter 14

An Act for applying a certain sum of Money therein mentioned, to make good certain Monies advanced by his Majesty through His Honor the President in pursuance of several addresses of this House. Passed the 14th March, 1815.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Whereas in pursuance of several addresses of your Commons House of Assembly to His Honor Gordon Drummond, Esquire, President, administering the government of your Province of Upper Canada, hearing date the twelfth and fourteenth of March, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, last passed, in the fifty-fourth year of your Majesty's reign, several sums of Money, amounting in the whole to the sum of one thousand one hundred and one pounds eleven shillings and even pence farthing, have been issued and advanced by your Majesty, through his Honor Gordon Drummond, Esquire, President, to the Clerks and other Officers of the two Houses of Parliament, for certain contingent expenses attending the last Session of Parliament, and to other persons for certain purposes stated in the several addresses: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Kings Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and content of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "an act to repeal certain parts of an act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, "an act for making more effectual provision for the government or the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the government of the said Province,"" and by the authority of the same, that out of the surplus of any fund or funds subject to the disposition of the Parliament of this Province, now remaining in the hands of the Receiver General, unappropriated, there shall be issued and applied the sum of one thousand one hundred and one pounds eleven shillings and seven pence farthing, to make good the said sum of money which has been issued and advanced in pursuance of the aforesaid addresses.

II. And be it further enabled by the authority aforesaid, That the due application of the said sum of money pursuant to the direction of this act, shall be accounted for to His Majesty, his heirs and successors, through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the time being, in such manner and form as His Majesty, his heirs and successors shall direct.
