

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1821. York: R. C. Horne, 1821.

2 George IV – Chapter 18

An Act to continue for a limited time a certain Act of the Parliament of this Province passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty's Reign: entitled "An Act to alter the Laws now in force for granting Licences to Inn-keepers and to give to the Justices of the Peace in General Quarter Sessions assembled for their respective Districts, authority to regulate the Duties hereafter to be paid on such Licences." Passed 14th April, 1821.

Whereas it is expedient to continue for a limited time the provisions of a certain Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the fifty ninth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled "An Act to alter the Laws now in force for granting Licences to Inn-keepers, and to give to the Justices of the Peace in General Quarter Sessions assembled for their respective Districts authority to regulate the Duties hereafter to be paid on such Licences" Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province'" and by the authority of the same, That the said Act, and every clause matter and thing therein contained, shall be continued and remain in force for two years, and from thence to the end of the then next ensuing Session of Parliament.
