

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1822. York: R. C. Horne, 1822.

2 George IV – Chapter 11

An Act to repeal in part, a certain part of an Act passed in the forty- third year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled "An Act to extend the provisions of an Act passed in the thirty fourth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled "An Act to restrain the custom of permitting Horned Cattle, Horses, Sheep and Swine, to run at large. And further to enable the Magistrates in their respective Districts in this Province, in General Quarter Sessions assembled, to make such rules and regulations as may restrain swine running at large in the respective Towns in this Province, where a Police is or may hereafter be established by Law. Passed 17th January, 1822.

Whereas, the Laws now in force for restraining the Custom of permitting Swine to run at large in certain Towns in this Province, have been found ineffectual and insufficient to abate an increasing nuisance, Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled "An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, so much of the fourth section of a certain Act passed in the forty-third year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled "An Act to extend the provisions of an Act passed in the thirty-fourth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled "An Act to restrain the custom of permitting horned cattle, horses, sheep and swine to run at large," as relates to the Town of York, Niagara, Sandwich, Amhersburgh and Kingston, Be and the same is hereby repealed.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Magistrates or the majority of them in general Quarter Sessions assembled, for any District in this Province, wherein a Police in any Town therein, is now or may hereafter be established by Law, to make, ordain, constitute and publish such prudential rules and regulations from time to time as they may deem expedient, relative to restraining swine running at large in any such Town, subject to the provisions and enactments, contained in any Law, establishing a Police in such respective Town in this Province.
