

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada in North America, passed in the year 1823.
York: Charles Fothergill, 1823.

4 George IV – Chapter 6

An Act to provide a Salary for the Adjutant General of Militia in this Province, and for other purposes therein mentioned. Passed 19th March, 1823.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Whereas, it is necessary to make better provision for the office of Adjutant General of Militia of this Province; Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further Provision for the Gvoernment of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That a certain Act of the Parliament of this Province, passed in the forty-eighth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled "An Act for granted to His Majesty an annual sum of money for the purposes therein mentioned," and the second clause of an Act of Parliament of this Province, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the Reign of His late Majesty, entitled "An Act to amend and Act passed in the forty-eighth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act to explain, amend and reduce to one Act of Parliament the several Laws now in being, for the raising and training the Militia of this Province,'" be, and the same are hereby repealed.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and out of the rates and duties already raised, levied and collected, or hereafter to be raised, levied and collected to and for the public use of this Province, there be granted annually to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the sum of six hundred pounds, to be applied as follows: that is to say, the sum of three hundred and sixty-five pounds to provide a salary for the Adjutant General of the Militia of this Province for the time being; the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds to provide a salary for an Assistant Adjutant General, to be appointed by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administer the Government of this Province for the time being, and the sum of eight five pounds to be paid to the Adjutant General of Militia, in lieu of all contingencies; which said several sums shall commence and be payable from and after the passing of this Act.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government of this Province, from time to time, to issue his Warrant or Warrants to the Receiver General of this Province for the said several sums of money half yearly, and the said Receiver General shall account to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors for the same, through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in such manner and form as His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors shall be graciously pleased to direct.

4 George IV – Chapter 6