

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada in North America, passed in the year 1824.
York: Charles Fothergill, 1824.

5 George IV – Chapter 28

An Act for the Relief of James Carrol. Passed Jan. 19th, 1824.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Whereas it appears by the petition of James Carrol, a private Militia-man in the late Provincial Artillery Corps, that during the late war with the United States of America, he contracted a disease, while on service, which has produced total blindness, and has thereby been rendered altogether unable to procure the common necessaries of life: And whereas it is desirable and proper, under such circumstances, to make provision for the said James Carrol in future: May it, therefore, please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and

Be It Therefore Enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper-Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to Repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual Provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America and to make further Provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same:— That from and after the passing of this Act, there be granted annually to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, during the natural life of the said James Carrol, the sum of Twenty Pounds, to enable him to provide a pension for the said James Carrol; which said sum shall commence and become payable from and after the passing of this Act.

II. And be it further Enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the sum herein declared payable, shall be paid by the Receiver General of this Province out of the monies that now are, or which may hereafter come into his hands, subject to the disposition of the Parliament of this Province, in discharge of such warrant or warrants as may therefor from time to time be issued by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of this Province, and be accounted for to His Majesty through the Lords Commissioners of His Treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, may please to direct.
