

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1829. York: Robert Stanton, 1829.

10 George IV – Chapter 16

An Act to amend part of an Act, passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled, “An Act to Incorporate certain persons therein mentioned, under the style and title of “The Cataraqui Bridge Company.”” Passed 20th March, 1829.

Whereas by the Twenty-third Section of an Act passed in the Eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled, “An Act to Incorporate certain persons therein mentioned, under the style and title of ‘The Cataraqui Bridge Company;’” the said Company to entitle themselves to the benefit and advantages granted to them by the said recited Act, are required to erect and complete the said Bridge within three years from the day of the passing thereof. And whereas it is expedient to extend the time for the completion thereof: Beit therefore enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority Of tin Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, “An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the Fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, ‘An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province and by the authority of the same, that the period for the erecting and completing of the said Cataraqui Bridge, be, and is hereby extended to two years from the day of the passing of this Act.”

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be considered a public Act, and as such shall be judicially noticed, without being specially pleaded.
