

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1830. York: Robert Stanton, 1830.

11 George IV – Chapter 18

An Act to Pension Charlotte Pomeroy, Widow of the late Timothy Conklin Pomeroy. Passed 6th March, 1830.

Most Gracious Sovereign.

Whereas it is expedient to provide means for the Pensioning Charlotte Pomeroy, the Widow of the late Timothy Conklin Pomeroy, Constable of the Gore District, who was killed while in the execution of his duty: We beseech Your Majesty, therefore, that it may be enacted:— And be it enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to Repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the Fourteenth Year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act, there be annually granted to His Majesty the sum of Twenty Pounds, Currency, to be paid as a Pension to the Widow of the aforesaid Timothy Conklin Pomeroy, which said sum hereby granted shall be paid by the Receiver General of this Province out of any Monies that now are, or which may hereafter come into his hands, subject to the disposition of the Parliament of this Province, and which may be unappropriated, in discharge of such Warrant or Warrants as may be issued by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province; and it shall and may be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province, to order and direct that the Pension aforesaid shall be paid either in advance, or by quarterly or half yearly payments, as to him shall seem proper, and the said sum or sums of Money, when so paid, shall be accounted for to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in such manner and form as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, may please to direct.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the aforesaid Pension shall continue and be payable in each and every year until the youngest Child of the said Timothy Conklin Pomeroy shall have attained the age of Sixteen years, and no longer.
