

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1830. York: Robert Stanton, 1830.

11 George IV – Chapter 32

An Act granting One Hundred Pounds in aid of the Funds of the Female Benevolent Society of Kingston. Passed 6th March, 1830.

Most Gracious Sovereign.

Whereas a Society was formed in the Year of our Lord One Thousand, Eight Hundred and Twenty-one, at Kingston, in this Province, called the Female Benevolent Society for the Relief of the Destitute Sick, and has been continued down to the present time, wholly supported by the contributions of benevolent Individuals, whereby great numbers of Your Majesty's unfortunate Subjects, who were, from various afflictions, reduced to want, and rendered by Sickness unable to procure the means of subsistence, have been assisted and relieved: And whereas several of the Inhabitants of the Town of Kingston have Petitioned for a Grant of such a Sum of Money as will enable the said Society to continue its relief to such unfortunate persons: Be it therefore enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, Constituted and Assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the Fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That from and out of the Rates and Duties already Raised, Levied, and Collected, and unappropriated, or hereafter to be Raised, Levied, and Collected, and unappropriated, there be granted to Your Majesty the Sum of One Hundred Pounds in aid of the Funds of the said Society.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the Money hereby granted shall be paid by the Receiver General in discharge of such Warrant or Warrants as shall be issued by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province, in favor of the Treasurer of the said Society; and that the said Receiver General shall account to His Majesty for the same, through the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as His Majesty shall be pleased to direct.
