

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1831. York: Robert Stanton, 1831.

1 William IV – Chapter 16

An Act to provide a Salary for the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, and to Remunerate him for past Services. Passed 16th March, 1831.

Most Gracious Sovereign,—

Whereas it is expedient to provide for the payment of a Salary to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, and to Remunerate him for past Services,—We, Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Upper Canada in Provincial Parliament Assembled, beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, And be it enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That from and out of the Rates and Duties raised, levied and collected, or hereafter to be raised, levied and collected, to and for the uses of this Province, and in the hands of the Receiver General, unappropriated, there be granted to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, for the present year, the sum of One Hundred and Twenty-five Pounds, and annually, in each and every succeeding year, the sum of Seventy-five Pounds, which said sums of One Hundred and Twenty-five Pounds, and Seventy-five Pounds, shall be appropriated as follows, that is to say:—To Samuel Peters Jarvis, Esquire, for past Services as Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, the said sum of One Hundred and Twenty-five Pounds, to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery for the time being, annually in each and every year, the sum of Seventy-five Pounds, to commence and be payable from the First day of January, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty-one; Provided always, that the said Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, shall not be entitled to receive any Fees whatever, for the Services which by virtue of his Office, he may be called upon to perform.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said sums of One Hundred and Twenty-five Pounds, and Seventy-five Pounds respectively, shall be paid by the Receiver General of this Province, in discharge of such Warrant or Warrants, as shall for that purpose, from time to time be issued by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province, and shall be accounted for, to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall be graciously pleased to direct.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue and be in force for four Years, and from thence to the end of the then next ensuing Session of Parliament, and no longer.
