

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1831. York: Robert Stanton, 1831.

1 William IV – Chapter 5

An Act to amend and extend the provisions of an Act passed in the eighth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled "An Act to provide for the Erection of a Gaol and Court House in the Eastern District." Passed 16th March, 1831.

Whereas it is expedient to amend and extend the provisions of an Act passed in the eighth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled "An Act to provide for the Erection of a Gaol and Court House in the Eastern District."—Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision, for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That in addition to the three persons appointed by Law to Superintend the Erection of a Gaol and Court House in the Eastern District, George S. Jarvis, and Philip Vankoughnett, Esquires, shall be Commissioners for the like purpose, and that a Majority of the said five Commissioners shall decide on all matters relating to the Erection and Completion of the said Gaol and Court House.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in case any vacancy shall occur from the death, or removal out of the District, of any one or more of the Commissioners appointed by this or any other Act, or by the refusal of any one or more of them to act, then and in such case, the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government, on such vacancies being certified to him by the other Commissioners, or a majority of them, is hereby authorised and required to fill up such vacancies.
