

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1833. York: Robert Stanton, 1833.

3 William IV – Chapter 14

An Act to continue an Act passed in the Eleventh year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled “An Act to revive and continue, with certain modifications, an Act passed in the Fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty’s Reign, entitled ‘An Act to alter the Laws now in force for granting Licences to Inn-Keepers, and to give to the Justices of the Peace in General Quarter Sessions assembled for their respective Districts, authority to regulate the Duties hereafter to be paid on such Licences.’” Passed 13th February, 1833.

Whereas an Act passed in the Eleventh year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled “An Act to revive and continue, with certain modifications, an Act passed in the Fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty’s Reign, entitled ‘An Act to alter the Laws now in force for granting Licences to Inn-Keepers, and to give to the Justices of the Peace in General Quarter Sessions assembled for their respective Districts, authority to regulate the Duties hereafter to be paid on such Licences,’” will expire at the close of the present Session of Parliament, if not continued: and it is expedient to continue the same: Be it therefore enacted, by the King’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled “An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty’s Reign, entitled ‘An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,’” and by the authority of the same, That the said recited Act shall be and continue in force for four years from the passing of this Act, and from thence to the end of the next ensuing Session of Parliament, and no longer.
