

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1833. York: Robert Stanton, 1833.

3 William IV – Chapter 25

An Act to authorise the Magistrates of the Eastern District to borrow a further sum of Money for the completion of the Gaol and Court House in the said District, and for inclosing the same; and also to empower the said Magistrates to continue the Assessments already imposed for building the said Gaol and Court House, until the Money so borrowed shall be repaid, with the Interest thereon. Passed 13th February, 1833.

Whereas it is expedient to enable the Magistrates of the Eastern District to borrow a further sum of money for the completion of the Gaol and Court House at Cornwall, in and for the said District, and for inclosing the same, and also to empower the said Magistrates to continue the Assessments already imposed upon the Inhabitant Householders of said District by the fifth clause of an Act passed in the Eighth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled "An Act to provide for the erection of a Gaol and Court House in the Eastern District," until the money loaned under the authority of this Act shall be repaid:— Be it therefore enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of the Peace in General Quarter Sessions assembled, by an order of the Court, to authorize and direct the Treasurer of the said District to raise by loan, from such person or persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, who may be willing to lend the same on the credit of the District, a sum of money not exceeding Two Thousand Pounds, to be applied by the Commissioners appointed by Law for the completion of the Gaol and Court House at Cornwall, in said District, and for inclosing the same.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so much of the fifth clause of the said Act passed in the Eighth year of His late Majesty's Reign as empowers the Magistrates of the said District in General Quarter Sessions assembled, to levy by Assessment, an additional rate upon every Inhabitant Householder in the said District, for the erection of the said Gaol and Court House, be, and the same is hereby continued for such term of years as may be necessary to repay the said sum of money and Interest, and no longer.

III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the money so loaned under the authority of this Act, shall not bear a greater Interest than Six per Centum per annum, and that from and after the payment of the loan heretofore contracted for the building of the said Gaol and Court House, the Treasurer of the said District for the time being shall annually, until the loan raised under this Act, with the Interest accruing thereon, shall be paid and discharged, apply towards the payment of the same a sum not less than Five Hundred Pounds, from and out of the
