

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1832. York: Robert Stanton, 1833.

3 William IV – Chapter 54

An Act to provide for the re-payment of certain sums of Money advanced by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, during the prevalence of the Asiatic Cholera. Passed 13th February, 1833.

Most Gracious Sovereign:

Whereas His Excellency Sir John Colborne did during the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty-two, advance from his own private funds the sum of Four Thousand and Sixty-four Pounds, Three Shillings and One Penny Half-penny, to enable the Justices of the Peace in the several Districts of this Province to mitigate as far as should lie in their power the sufferings of the Inhabitants of this Province, and of persons emigrating thereto, occasioned by the calamitous visitation of that dreadful and mysterious disease called Asiatic Cholera, and to stay, in as far as human wisdom could devise, and the means put in their possession would enable them, the direful ravages of the same: and whereas it is expedient to make good to His Excellency the said sum so advanced by him, with the interest grown due upon the same: We therefore beseech Your Majesty, that it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That out of the rates and duties now levied and collected, or which may hereafter be levied and collected, and in the hands of the Receiver General of this Province and unappropriated, there be granted to His Majesty, the sum of Four Thousand, One Hundred and Fifty-eight Pounds, and Seven Pence Half-penny, to make good to His Excellency Sir John Colborne the said sum of Four Thousand and Sixty-four Pounds, Three Shillings and One Penny Half-penny, so advanced by him as aforesaid, and the Interest grown due thereupon.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the monies authorized to be issued by this Act shall be paid by the Receiver General of this Province, in discharge of any Warrant or Warrants issued for that purpose by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person administering the Government of the same, and shall be accounted for to His Majesty through the Lords Commissioners of His Treasury, in such manner and form as His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, shall be pleased to direct.
