

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1833. York: Robert Stanton, 1833.

3 William IV – Chapter 58

An Act granting to His Majesty a sum of Money to remunerate the Honorable John Henry Dunn, for certain services therein mentioned. Passed 13th February, 1833.

Most Gracious Sovereign:

Whereas it is just and reasonable to remunerate the Honorable John Henry Dunn, Your Majesty's Receiver General, for services required of him, and which he has heretofore performed in distributing divers sums of Money granted by the Legislature of this Province to Sufferers during the late War with the United States of America, We, Your Majesty's faithful Subjects the Commons of Upper Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled, beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted: And be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provisions for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That out of the Rates and Duties levied and collected, or hereafter to be levied and collected, and unappropriated, there be granted to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the sum of Six Hundred Pounds, to be paid to the said Honorable John Henry Dunn, to remunerate him for services required of him, and which he has heretofore performed as aforesaid.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the money hereby granted shall be paid by the Receiver General, in discharge of such Warrant or Warrants as shall be issued by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or person Administering the Government of this Province; and shall be accounted for to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as His Majesty, His Heirs, and Successors, shall be graciously pleased to direct.
