

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1833. York: Robert Stanton, 1833.

3 William IV – Chapter 6

An Act to Revive and continue An Act passed in the Fifty-fifth year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled “An Act to Repeal an Act passed in the Fifty fourth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled ‘An Act to supply, in certain cases, the want of County Courts in this Province, and to make further provision for proceeding to Outlawry, in certain cases therein mentioned.’” Passed 13th February, 1833.

Whereas an Act was passed in the Fifty-fifth year of the Reign of King George the Third, entitled “An Act to Repeal an Act passed in the Fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled ‘An Act to supply, in certain cases, the want of County Courts in this Province, and to make further provision for proceeding to Outlawry in certain cases therein mentioned’”; And whereas the said Act having been passed for a limited time, has been continued by several Acts, and has lately been suffered to expire, and it is expedient to Revive and Continue the same:—Be it therefore enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled “An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled ‘An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,’” and by the authority of the same, That the said Act shall be, and the same is hereby Revived, and shall be and continue in force, any thing in the said Act, or in any other Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be and continue in force for the space of Six years, and from thence to the end of the then next ensuing Session of Parliament, and no longer.
