

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1834. York: Robert Stanton, 1834.

4 William IV — Chapter 9

An Act to amend An Act passed in the second year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled “An Act to repeal part of and amend An Act passed in the thirty-seventh year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled ‘An Act for the better regulating the practice of the Law, and to extend the provisions of the same.’” Passed 6th March, 1834.

Whereas by a Statute passed in the second year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled “An Act to repeal part of and amend an Act passed in the thirty-seventh year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled ‘An Act for the better regulating the practice of the Law, and to extend the provisions of the same,’” it is among other things enacted, that no person shall be admitted by the Court of King's Bench to practice as an Attorney in this Province unless upon an actual service under articles for five years with some practicing Attorney in this Province: And whereas such Law may, operate to the prejudice of His Majesty's service if applied to His Majesty's Attorney or Solicitor General, who previous to their appointment may not have served under such articles in this Province: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain entitled, “An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled ‘An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,’” and by the authority of the same, That nothing in the third clause of the said Act passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth shall apply to any person appointed, or to be appointed by His Majesty, to be His Attorney or Solicitor General for this Province, but that such Attorney General or Solicitor General shall be, and is hereby declared to be entitled, upon his application to be admitted and sworn an Attorney of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench in this Province, in the same manner as if he had served the period required by Law with some practicing Attorney of the said Court.
