

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1835. Toronto: Robert Stanton, 1835.

5 William IV – Chapter 27

An Act to revive and continue an Act passed in the Tenth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act the better to protect the Mississagua Tribes living on the Indian Reserve at the River Credit, in their Exclusive Right of Fishing and Hunting therein. Passed 16th April, 1835.

Whereas an Act passed in the Tenth year of his late Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act the better to protect the Mississagua [Mississauga] Tribes living on the Indian Reserve at the River Credit, in their exclusive right of Fishing and Hunting therein," expired at the end of the last Session of the Provincial Parliament; And whereas it is expedient that the said recited Act should be revived: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That said Act be and the same is hereby revived and continued, any thing therein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be and continue in force for and during the term of four years from the passing thereof, and from thence to the end of the then next ensuing Session of Parliament, and no longer.
