

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1836. Toronto: Robert Stanton, 1836.

6 William IV – Chapter 26 (Session 1)

An Act for the relief of Andrew Deacon. Passed 20th April, 1836.

Whereas Andrew Deacon, Esquire, Collector of Customs at the Port of Hallowell, in the District of Prince Edward, has by the Laws of this Province been prevented from receiving any per centage on certain monies collected as duties at the said Port, and paid into the hands of the Receiver General of this Province, in consequence of the said Andrew Deacon not reporting the same to the Inspector General within the period prescribed by law: And whereas, it is expedient to afford relief to the said Andrew Deacon: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Inspector General of this Province to allow to the said Andrew Deacon, as Collector at the said Port of Hallowell, the regular percentage to which the said Andrew Deacon would by law be entitled, on all monies heretofore collected at the said Port, and which may be paid into the hands of the Receiver General of this Province, as if the said monies had been accounted for according to, and within the period prescribed by law.
