

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1837. York: Robert Stanton, 1837.

7 William IV – Chapter 100

An Act granting to His Majesty a sum of Money to remunerate the Arbitrator appointed to ascertain the amount of Revenue to be paid to this Province from Lower Canada. Passed 4th March, 1837.

Most Gracious Sovereign:

Whereas it is expedient to compensate the services of the Arbitrator appointed in behalf of this Province, under the provisions of the Act of the Imperial Parliament, passed in the third year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act to regulate the Trade of the Provinces of Lower and Upper Canada, and for other purposes relating to the said Provinces," may it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, And be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That from and out of the Rates and Dues now raised, levied and collected, or hereafter to be raised, levied and collected, to and for the public uses of the Province, and in the hands of the Receiver General, unappropriated, there be granted to His Majesty the sum of Two Hundred Pounds, to enable His Majesty to compensate the said Arbitrator, for his services as aforesaid.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said sum of Two Hundred Pounds, shall be paid by the Receiver General of this Province, in discharge of any Warrant which may be issued by the Lieutenant Governor, for that purpose, and shall be accounted for to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in such manner and form as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall be graciously pleased to direct.
