

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1837. Toronto: Robert Stanton, 1837.

7 William IV – Chapter 17

An Act to prevent the Dissolution of the Parliament of this Province, in the event of a Demise of the Crown. Passed 4th March, 1837.

Whereas it is expedient to provide against the great inconvenience which might ensue from the inevitable dissolution of the Provincial Parliament upon a Demise of the Crown, on any future occasion: Be it therefore enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That the Parliament of this Province shall not in any case be deemed to be determined or dissolved by the Death or Demise of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors; nor shall any Session of the Parliament of this Province be deemed to be determined, or the proceedings therein pending in any manner abated, interrupted or affected, by the Demise of His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors; but notwithstanding such Death or Demise the Parliament of this Province shall continue, and if sitting, shall proceed to act until dissolved or prorogued in the usual manner, or until the legal expiration of the term of such Parliament.
