

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1837. York: Robert Stanton, 1837.

7 William IV – Chapter 28

An Act to continue for a limited time, An Act for Licensing Ale and Beer Houses. Passed 4th March, 1837.

Whereas an Act passed in the second year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act to continue in force, for a limited time, an Act passed in the fourth year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled 'An Act to restrain the selling of Beer, Ale, Cider, and other Liquors not Spirituous, in certain Towns and Villages in this Province, and to regulate the manner of Licensing the same,'" is about to expire: And whereas, it is expedient to continue the same: Be it therefore enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That the said Act shall be and continue in force for four years from the close of this Session, and from thence to the end of the then next ensuing Session of the Provincial Parliament, and no longer.
