

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1837. York: Robert Stanton, 1837.

7 William IV – Chapter 93

An Act for granting a sum of Money to defray a part of the expense to finish the Survey of the River Thames, from Chatham to London. Passed 4th March, 1837.

Most Gracious Sovereign:

Whereas it is just and reasonable to discharge the remaining expenses of procuring a Survey, Plan, Profile and Estimate, for improving the Navigation of the River Thames, from the Town of London to the Town of Chatham, on that River: Be it therefore enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's Reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That out of the Rates and Duties levied and collected, or hereafter to be levied and collected, and unappropriated, there be granted to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the sum of Two Hundred and Fifty Pounds, to be paid to Thomas Parke, and John Harris, Esquires, to enable them to discharge the remaining expenses of procuring a Survey, Plan, Profile and Estimate, for improving the Navigation of the River Thames, from the Town of London to the Town of Chatham, on that River.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the money hereby granted shall be paid by the Receiver General, in discharge of such Warrant or Warrants as shall be issued by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province, for the purposes of this Act, and shall be accounted for to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the time being, in such manner and form as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall be graciously pleased to direct.
