

Laws of His Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1837. York: Robert Stanton, 1837.

7 William IV – Chapter 98

An Act granting a sum of Money in aid of the Kingston Hospital. Passed 4th March, 1837.

Most Gracious Sovereign:

Whereas the Clergy and other Inhabitants of Kingston, have, by their Petition, set forth, that all the Bedding, Furniture and Stoves, belonging to the Hospital at Kingston, has been destroyed by Fire, and stating the necessity there exists for immediately furnishing and fitting up the new Hospital in the said Town, and have prayed that the sum of Five Hundred Pounds should be granted for that purpose: Be it therefore enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year, of His Majesty's reign, entitled, 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That from and out of the Rates and Duties raised, levied and collected, and unappropriated, or hereafter to be raised, levied and collected, and unappropriated, there be granted to His Majesty the sum of Five Hundred Pounds, for the purpose of furnishing, completing and fitting up, the new Hospital at Kingston.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the money hereby granted, shall be paid by the Receiver General, in discharge of such Warrant or Warrants as shall be issued by the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person Administering the Government of this Province, for the time being, in favour of the Commissioners heretofore appointed, to purchase a site and erect the said Hospital, and shall be accounted for by the said Receiver General to His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, through the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the time being, in such manner and form as His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall be graciously pleased to direct.
