

Laws of Her Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1839. Toronto: Robert Stanton, 1839.

2 Victoria – Chapter 20

An Act to revive, and continue for a limited time, the Second Clause of an Act passed in the ninth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, entitled, “An Act to secure to and confer upon certain Inhabitants of this Province the civil and political rights of natural born British Subjects.” Passed 11th May, 1839.

Whereas the time allowed by the Second Clause of an Act passed in the ninth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, entitled “An Act to secure to and confer upon certain Inhabitants of this Province the Civil and Political Rights of natural born British Subjects,” has expired: And whereas it is necessary to revive and continue the same for two years: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled “An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty’s reign, entitled ‘An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the. said Province,” and by the authority of the same, That so much of the said Second Clause of the said Act as limits the time for taking the oath therein prescribed, be revived, and the same is hereby extended to two years from and after the passing of this Act, and no longer.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be publicly read by the Clerk of the Peace, immediately after empanneling the Grand Jury, at the several Courts of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held in the several Districts of this Province, for four successive sittings of such Courts after the first day of July next.
