

Laws of Her Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1839. Toronto: Robert Stanton, 1839.

2 Victoria – Chapter 63

An Act granting a certain sum of money for the maintenance and support of the House of Industry, in the City of Toronto. Passed 11th May, 1839.

Most Gracious Sovereign:

Whereas it is reasonable to grant aid to the House of Industry of the City of Toronto, may it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted: And be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, That from and out of the rates and duties now raised, levied and collected, or hereafter to be raised, levied and collected, there be granted to Her Majesty the sum of Two Hundred Pounds, to enable Her Majesty to advance the like sum in aid of the means already adopted by the Managers of the House of Industry, for the relief of the poor and distressed of the City of Toronto.
