

Laws of Her Majesty's Province of Upper Canada, passed in the year 1839. Toronto: Robert Stanton, 1839.

2 Victoria – Chapter 68

An Act to make provision for the payment of certain losses, sustained by sundry individuals therein named. Passed 11th May, 1839.

Whereas during the last Session of the Legislature of this Province, the claims of sundry inhabitants thereof, for losses during the late Insurrection, have been duly investigated, by the Commissioners appointed under the Act passed during the said Session, entitled, "An Act to authorise the appointment of Commissioners, to investigate the claims of certain inhabitants of this Province, for losses sustained during the late unnatural Rebellion," who have reported thereupon, and it is expedient to make provision for the satisfaction of such claims: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, entitled "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, entitled 'An Act for making more effectual provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec, in North America, and to make further provision for the Government of the said Province," and by the authority of the same, That immediately after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Receiver General of this Province to issue debentures to the following persons, inhabitants of this Province, whose claims for losses during the Insurrection, in the month of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, have been investigated by the Commissioners appointed under the before recited Act, for the amount of their several and respective claims, as allowed by the said Commissioners, which claims are as follows, that is to say: Robert Charles Horne, Esquire, the sum of Two Thousand One Hundred and Twenty-seven Pounds, eighteen and nine-pence; Clarke Gamble, Esquire, Trustee to the Estate of the late Benjamin Whitney, Esquire, the sum of One Hundred and Twenty-five Pounds; Michael Murnan, the sum of Seven Pounds four shillings; Jane Mulligan, the sum of Nine Pounds; Mistress Washburn, the sum of One Thousand Two Hundred and Twenty-one Pounds, six shillings and five-pence; Michael Burrough, the sum of Thirty-three Pounds, five shillings and three-pence; William Burrough, the sum of Three Hundred and Fifty Pounds; J. Stafford, for O. Stafford, the sum of One Hundred and Thirty-three Pounds; James Stafford, the sum of Thirty-six Pounds, five shillings; J. Detchman, the sum of Sixty Pounds, fourteen shillings.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Debentures may be issued to the said individuals, in such amounts as the said Receiver General may deem expedient, and shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum, and be redeemable at the expiration of twenty years from the time of issuing the same, and bear date from the first day of January fast.
