An Act to Incorporate the College of L'Assomption, in the County of Leinster.

[18th September, 1841.]

Preamble

WHEREAS it hath been represented to the Legislature of this Province, that the Ecclesiastics and persons hereinafter named, and divers Inhabitants of the Parish of L'Assomption and of other parts of the County of Leinster in this Province, have for many years past used their most zealous efforts to establish the College of L'Assomption in the said Parish, and that by such efforts, aided by grants of the Public Money by the Legislature of Lower Canada, they have succeeded in establishing the said College on a permanent footing, and that by the liberality of divers well disposed persons, property hath at sundry times been given or bequeathed for the maintenance of the said Collège; and whereas it would tend greatly to advance and extend the usefulness of the said Collège, and to promote the purposes for which it was founded, that it should be incorporated, and that the property given or bequeathed for its endowment should be held by the Corporation in Mortmain for the uses thereof; Be it therefore enacted, by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative
