

C A P. LXXIII.

An Act to amend an Act of that part of the Province, formerly called Upper Canada, intituled, "An Act to provide for the making and keeping in repair the West Gwillimbury Road and Bridge, and to authorize the erection of a Toll Gate thereon."

[17th August, 1841.]

WHEREAS in and by a certain Act of the Legislature of the late Province of Upper Canada, passed in the sixth year of the Reign of His late Majesty, King William the Fourth, and intituled An Act to provide for the making and keeping in repair the West Gwillimbury Road and Bridge, and to authorize the erection of a Toll Gate thereon, it is among other things in effect enacted, that certain persons named in the said Act, or appointed in certain cases in the manner therein provided, shall be Commissioners with power to make such improvements on a certain Road and Bridge, in the said Act described, as by them may be deemed expedient and necessary, and shall have power to do and perform all and whatsoever act and acts, thing and things, necessary and proper to carry the intentions of the said Act into effect, and shall have certain other powers and shall perform certain duties by the said Act conferred upon and assigned to the said Commissioners; and whereas it is expedient that the number of such Commissioners be increased; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Session held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's Reign, and intituled An Act to Re-write the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada; and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that it shall be lawful for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Person administering the Government of the Province, from time to time, and as occasion may require, by an instrument or instruments under his hand and seal, to appoint such other person or persons as he may think fit, to be Commissioners for the purposes of the Act first above cited, jointly with the Commissioners named in the said Act or appointed under the authority thereof, and to have jointly with the Commissioners last mentioned, all the powers and perform all the duties by the said Act conferred upon or assigned to the Commissioners named in or appointed under the same: Provided always, that the number of Commissioners appointed under this Act and in Office at any one time shall not exceed seven.

Preamble.

A certain Act in part recited.

Governor &c. may appoint an additional number of Commissioners for the purposes of the said Act.
