An Act to extend the time limited by Law for the construction and completion of the Port Dover Harbour.

[18th September, 1841.]

Preamble.

Act of U. C.,
5. Will. 4, cap.
23.

WHEREAS in and by an Act of the Parliament of Upper Canada, passed in the fifth year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and intituled An Act to continue and amend an Act passed in the second year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for incorporating a Joint Stock Company under the style and title of the President, Directors and Company of the Port Dover Harbour, it is among other things in effect enacted that the said Act shall cease and be utterly null and void, unless the Harbour therein mentioned be completed within seven years from the passing of the said Act; And whereas the Harbour hath been commenced and a considerable sum of money expended thereon, and it is is expedient to extend the time within which it may be completed so as to prevent the expiration of the said Act; Be it therefore enacted, by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled An Act to Re-unite the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, and for the Government of Canada; and it is hereby enacted, by the authority of the same, that the said Act shall remain in force during seven years from the passing of this Act, after the expiration of which term it shall remain in full force and effect if the said Harbour be then completed, but shall otherwise cease and be thence forward utterly null and void.

The said Act shall remain in force if Port Dover Harbour be completed within a certain time.

C A P . LXXVIII.

An Act to increase the sum which may be raised, under a certain Act therein mentioned, for defraying the cost of certain Public Buildings in the County of Simcoe.

[18th September, 1841.]

WHEREAS by the nineteenth Section of an Act passed by the Legislature of the late Province of Upper Canada, in the seventh year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to authorize the erection of the County of Simcoe into a separate District, by the name of the District of Simcoe, it is enacted, "That it shall and may be lawful for the Magistrates of the said County, so assembled as aforesaid, and they are hereby empowered by an order of such meeting, to authorize and direct the Treasurer so to be appointed as aforesaid, to raise by Loan, from such person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, who may be willing to lend the same on the credit of the rates and assessments to be raised, levied and collected in the said intended District, a sum not exceeding four thousand pounds, to be applied in defraying the expences of building the said Court House and Gaol;" And whereas the said sum of four thousand pounds have been duly raised and expended in building the said Gaol, and a further sum of three thousand pounds is required, and is absolutely necessary to be raised for completing the said Court House and Gaol; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great
